GAME 14
Mayville State University (6-7-1)
at Concordia College (1-12-0)

October 20, 2005
Jake Christiansen Athletic Complex
Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 3:00 PM
SERIES: Concordia leads 1-0-0
SERIES STARTED: 2004

LAST MEETING:
Mayville State 3 at Concordia 4 OT

LAST YEAR’S RECAP: The Cobbers overcame a one-goal halftime deficit and posted a 4-3 overtime victory over the Comets. The win snapped a 14-game winless streak for Concordia. Leading the way for the Cobber offensive attack was sophomore Brandon Root. Root scored two goals. Constant Maninga, Root's front-running mate, scored the other two goals for the Cobbers - including the game winner at the 95-minute mark. The two forwards combined for 15 of the team's 20 shots in the game. Mayville (6-8-0) struck first in the game, scoring the opening goal at 23:41. That would prove to be the only goal in the half, as the Comets took a 1-0 lead into the break. That's when the offense took over. In the second half, the two teams combined for five goals and 19 shots. Root tied the game at 53:45 on a penalty kick and then Maninga gave Concordia the lead just 2:33 later when he scored the first of his two goals. Mayville countered with a pair of their own three-minute goals. Joshua Olsson scored at 68:31, and then Jacob Miller scored his second goal of the game at 71:12 to give the Comets a 3-2 lead. The lead was short-lived, as Root struck for his second goal of the period 48 seconds later. The teams traded chances in the dying moments of regulation before Maninga struck the game-winner five minutes into the first extra period. For the game, the Cobbers outshot the Comets 20-16. Cobber keeper Nik Pickett was credited with five saves in the game, while Mayville goalie Brady Horvath turned aside nine shots.

GameDay Kickoff
(What you need to know about today’s Concordia-Mayville State match-up)

- Concordia enters today’s game on an 11-game losing streak. The Cobbers have not won since the second game of the season when they blanked St. Scholastica 3-0.
- The Cobbers spent last weekend in Colorado Springs, Colo. Concordia lost to Virginia Wesleyan 6-1 on Friday and then turned around and lost 10-0 to the host Colorado College Tigers on Saturday. Virginia Wesleyan is ranked fourth in the south region in latest NSCAA regional rankings.
- Matt Klein was the lone Concordia goal scorer in Colorado. Klein notched his second goal of the season at the 56:16 mark against Virginia Wesleyan.
- The Cobbers are led by senior forward Sylvester Ndhlovu. Ndhlovu has five goals and two assists for 12 points in the season. That point total is more than his three previous seasons combined.
- Concordia will finish the 2005 campaign with games against Carleton and St. John’s. The Cobbers will host the Knights on Saturday, Oct. 22 at 1:00pm and then play at St. John’s on Saturday, Oct. 29 at 3:00pm.
- The Concordia goal tandem of Brett Oestreich and Dustin Pattengale are fourth and fifth in the MIAC in saves per game in overall games. Oestreich is fourth, averaging 5.38 saves per game, and Pattengale is tied for fifth with a 5.00 saves per game average.
- The only common opponent that the Cobbers and Comets share in 2005 is Mayville State. Concordia beat the Saints 3-0, while the Comets posted a 3-1 win.
- Mayville State enters today’s game on a one-game winning streak, having defeated Presentation College 3-2 on Sunday, Oct. 16.
- The Comets established a new team record for wins when they won their fifth game of the year by beating Finlandia (MI) 9-0 on Oct. 8. They have since added one more to the total. The Comets, in their second full season as a varsity program, had four wins in 14 games last season.
- Mayville sophomore forward Miki Jovanovic has scored goals in nine of the 12 games he has played in this year and added an assist in a tenth game.

Concordia Men’s Soccer Coach
Damian Koschnick

Damian Koschnick is in his first season as head coach of the Concordia men’s soccer team. He was hired as head coach of the Cobbers in the summer of 2005. He is the fourth coach in the history program.

A native of Fargo, N.D., Koschnick also teaches in the English Department at Concordia. He has been the assistant coach for the Fargo North boys’ high school team for the past two seasons. He served as an assistant coach for the Cobber women’s team during their trip to Brazil in the summer of 2005 where the squad played the Brazilian national squad. While in Brazil, Koschnick earned a coaching license at the Brazil/United States Coaching Academy (BRUSA).

Koschnick played at Concordia for the 1994 season before deciding to concentrate on his studies at the college. He earned his bachelor’s degree in 1998 while majoring in English and Philosophy. He earned his master’s degree in Teaching English Composition from Humboldt State University (Calif.) in 2002.

Koschnick played high school soccer at Fargo North where he was a three-year all-state award winner and the captain of the Spartans in his senior year. He has played for the St. Paul Rebel’s men’s club team that won the Wilson Cup in 1999 and the Humboldt Hawks that won the California 1st division city-wide league in 2000-01.

While attending graduate school at Humboldt State University, Koschnick organized and coached the Arcata-Eureka California Youth Development Camps from 2000-02. After returning to the Fargo-Moorhead area in 2003 he served as the assistant boys’ high school coach at Fargo North.

He currently lives in Fargo, N.D.

Coaching Staff:

Head Coach: Peter Rivard (2nd Year)
Assistant Coach: Robert Dow (2nd Year)
Assistant Coach: Luke Rivard (1st Year)

2005 Season Preview (courtesy of the Mayville State SID)

So when you qualify for regional playoffs your first year of play and have a player earn national recognition for his success on the pitch, where do you go next?

“Our goal is to get to the regional play-in game and go from there,” said Mayville head coach Peter Rivard. “The other slice is that you always want to be the number one team in the region, but even the number one team still needs to win all their games to advance to nationals. Making the playoffs is an achievement.”

One of the biggest differences from last year to this year is experience. The Comets were a bunch of diaper dandies last year. Of the 13 players, 12 were freshmen. The one non-freshman was a junior in his first season playing collegiate soccer. This season, nine Comets return who played for MSU last year and two others who red-shirted are now ready to go. MSU added six freshmen and a senior to their squad and will be a much deeper team than a year ago.

“We expect to be a very exciting team,” said Rivard. “When we add in our two red shirts - 6’2 forward Jovan Petrovic and Damir Vujic on defense - we have more soccer guys on the field, more guys on the pitch who know the game. We added a true wide midfielder in freshman David Henry who can flat out fly. Add in another freshman midfielder, Terrance Williams, and we have had a significant upgrade in several positions.”

Add in the third Comet from Serbia and Montenegro - NAIA honorable mention All-America Miki Jovanovic and the Comets will be exciting on offense. Jovanovic was incredible as a freshman last season. In just 14 games, he scored 12 goals and added five assists to easily pace the Comets in scoring. A NAIA All-Region III first team selection, Jovanovic potentially could be even better this year.

Can year two top year one? Based on all the added experience the team received last season and the number of quality players joining the program for 2005, it certainly looks good. Now it’s all up to the Comets, who can’t wait to get on the pitch and continue making team history.

LAST GAME RECAP

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.-- Eight different players scored goals and 10 had at least one point as the Colorado College men's soccer team beat Concordia, 10-0 in a Division III match at CC's Stewart Field.

David Khuen and Joey Wykoski had to make only three saves as the Tigers extended their winning streak to three matches and improved to 8-5 on the year. The Cobbers, who were playing for the second time in less than 24 hours, dropped to 1-12.

Colorado College went up 1-0 just over four minutes into the game on an own goal and Pat Fagan tallied the first of his two first-half markers just 3:04 later. Fagan finished with two goals and an assist, while Chris Quon had goal and two assists.

Julian Holscher extended his goal scoring streak to three games with an unassisted tally 30 minutes into the game. Brian Wohiner and Lee Smith also scored in the first stanza as CC built a 6-0 halftime lead.

The 10 goals are the most for the Tigers since a 10-0 victory against Cal Tech on Nov. 2, 2003.

Brett Oestreich had eight saves for Concordia.
