COBBER VOLLEYBALL MATCHDAY
September 16, 2006 – 3 p.m.
#7 Concordia-Moorhead vs. #16 Carleton
Memorial Auditorium

MATCH #10
Carleton College (6-3/1-0 MIAC) at
Concordia College (8-1/0-1/0 MIAC)
September 16, 2006
Memorial Auditorium
Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 3 p.m.
SERIES: Concordia leads the series 29-17
SERIES STARTED: 1978
LAST YEAR: Last year Carleton swept the two-match series. The Knights beat the Cobbers 3-2 (30-21, 28-30, 30-16, 25-30, 15-12) in Northfield during the regular season and then ousted CC from the NCAA Tournament by capturing a 3-1 (30-22, 23-30, 26-30, 25-30) victory in the opening round of the Central Regional. In the regular-season match, the Knights won the first and third matches of the tournament before the Cobbers claimed the fourth. In the deciding mini-game, Carleton took three of their four points after the two teams were tied at 3-3, and used that gap to push Concordia to the defeat. The Cobbers narrowed the margin to 10-9 and then 13-12, but the Knights closed out the match with a kill and an attack error. The story of the match was the career-night that Carleton junior Danielle Hargreaves produced. She recorded a match-high 25 kills to go along with 23 digs. CC was led by Becca Shane. Shane finished with 15 kills and a match-high seven blocks. The NCAA Tournament match was all Carleton after the Cobbers took the opener 30-22. Shane had a match-high 22 kills for Concordia. She also added four blocks and nine digs. Danielle Hargreaves had 15 kills and 22 digs and Jamie Lykken had 32 digs and three aces for the Knights.

MATCHDAY GAME NOTES
COBBER KILLS
• Concordia is coming to perhaps its best five-day stretch in program history. In that five-day period, the Cobbers have pulled off wins against two top-ten nationally ranked teams. Last Saturday, the Cobbers beat, then No.9-ranked, UW-Oshkosh 3-0 (30-19, 30-25, 30-25) and on Wednesday they did that five better by knocking off No. 4-ranked, and previously unbeaten, St. Thomas 3-1 (30-26, 26-30, 30-22, 30-27).
• To go along with their early-season success in 2006 – the Cobbers are currently 8-1 – the team has climbed to new heights in the AVCA national poll. Before this season, the highest Tim Mosser’s crew had ever been ranked was 10th (twice in 2005). On Wednesday, the AVCA released the latest poll and Concordia was sitting comfortably at the “lucky” No. 7 spot.
• The Cobbers saw their 30-match regular-season tournament winning streak come to an end last weekend. CC won the first three matches of the tourney before falling to host, and now No.20-ranked, Trinity (Texas). Becca Shane was the only Concordia player named to the All-Tournament Team.
• Shane is having one of the best starts to a season in her Cobber career. She already has 146 kills in the team’s first nine matches. She currently has 1,241 kills for her career and ranks fifth on the school’s all-time list for career kills. Laura Reitmeier (’99) holds the program record with 1,538 career kills. Next up for Shane would be Kerri Smerud (’92) who is in fourth place with 1,302 career kills.
• Shane currently leads the MIAC in kills and blocks (46) and is second in hitting percentage (.438).
• One of the keys to the Cobbers’ success so far in ‘06 is their depth on the front-line. Concordia has three players in the top ten in the MIAC in hitting percentage. Besides Shane, senior Lindsay Sipma is fifth (.345) and senior transfer Daniella Dahl is ninth (.329).
• As a team, Concordia is currently leading the conference in hitting percentage (.332) and blocks (.302/game).
• The “new” face on the Cobber bench this year is former Concordia twin Amy Fitzner (’05). Fitzner helped the Cobbers to a pair of MIAC Tournament titles and is the only CC player in program history to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs. She is currently finishing up her master’s degree at Central Missouri State.

KING DUGS:
(courtesy of Carleton SID)
• Carleton split four matches at the ultra-competitive St. Olaf Invitational, defeating regional foe Coe College (Iowa) and perennial WIAC contender UW-La Crosse, but falling to seventh-ranked and defending national champion UW-Whitewater and UW-River Falls.
• Danielle Hargreaves was Carleton’s lone selection to the all-tournament team. She tallied 15 kills in the win over UW-La Crosse and 19 in the defeat of the Cohawks.
• The win over the Eagles marked only the third time in 11 tries Carleton has beaten UW-La Crosse.
• Carleton, which won the 2004 MIAC title and finished runner-up last year and has but two MIAC losses over the past two seasons, starts MIAC play with a huge two-week stretch. After today’s match, they follow with a Sept. 20 home opener against a much-improved Gustavus squad, then travel to nationally-ranked St. Benedict on Sept. 23. They cap the stretch by hosting defending conference champion St. Thomas on Sept. 27.

COBBER LAST MATCH RECAP

In a match that pitted two of the top seven teams in the country, No. 7 Concordia sprinted from the gate and captured a 3-1 (30-26, 26-30, 30-22, 30-27) win over previously unbeaten and No. 4-ranked St. Thomas. The victory gives the Cobbers a pair of wins over top ten ranked teams in the past five days. Concordia swept then No.9-ranked UW-Oshkosh 3-0 in the third match of the Trinity Tournament on Saturday. The victory also avenges last year's conference opening loss to the Tommies. St. Thomas used the momentum of that victory to go undefeated in the conference and eventually go on to the Central Region final in the NCAA Tournament.

The Cobbers broke to quick leads in all three of their game wins. After beating the Tommies 30-26 in the first game and then dropping the second game by a similar 30-26 score, Concordia opened with a 20-10 in game three and closed out the pivotal game 30-22. In the fourth, and deciding game, CC held leads of 10-1 and 19-7 and had to hold off a hard-charging St. Thomas team when they cut the lead to 26-24.

Becca Shane had a monster match for the Cobbers. The senior finished with a match-high 21 kills and 10 combined blocks. Shane set the tone for the Cobber defense which posted 29 combined blocks and held the dangerous Tommie attack to a season-low .212 attack percentage. She was part of a trio of senior Cobbers who all had kill totals in double-digits. Danielle Dahl had 11 kills and seven combined blocks and Lindsey Simpa recorded 10 kills.

Sophomore setter Alyssa Dahl had a match-high 32 assists and fellow sophomore Katlin Anderson added 17 assists. Anna Walden, who has come on in the past five matches to give the Cobbers a solid defensive specialist, finished with 23 digs. It is the fifth time in the last seven matches she has had at least 10 digs. Walden was joined by three other teammates who all had over 15 digs in the game as the Cobbers combined for a season-high 93 digs. That total is in the top three on the school's all-time list for digs by a team in a four-game match. Michelle Honek and Alyssa Dahl each had 17 digs and freshman Angie Bonde added 16. Honek also had eight kills and a match-high three service aces.

Danielle Hargreaves recorded a double-double with 22 kills and 13 digs, leading Carleton College to a 3-1 victory over host Augsburg College in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference opener for both teams. Carleton (6-3, 1-0 MIAC), ranked No. 16 in the most recent American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Division III national poll, won by individual game scores of 23-30, 30-17, 30-26, 30-27.

Augsburg (5-5, 0-1 MIAC) was paced by a double-double from Dani Boner who had 10 kills and 11 digs, and Katie LaGrave’s 16 kills, four blocks and six digs while hitting .405 (one error in 37 attempts).

The Augies jumped out to the early advantage in the first game, taking a 15-7 lead behind three kills from LaGrave and two service aces. LaGrave ended up with four kills in the first game, while Boner had three kills.

Carleton claimed five kills from Hargreaves and hit .343 as a team (16 kills and four errors in 35 attempts) to win the second game. The Knights used a 17-3 scoring run to rally from an early 11-6 deficit and take control of the second game, 23-14.

Hargreaves then hit .438 in the third game, with eight kills and just one error, to lead the Knights in the third game. Augsburg came back from a 16-10 deficit to cut the lead to 20-18, but Carleton pulled away late.

Five kills from Hargreaves and six kills from Sarah Kunelius led the Knights to the final-game win, withstanding a six-kill, .545 hitting performance by Augsburg’s LaGrave.

Kunelius had 11 kills for the Knights in the match, while Megan La Chapelle tallied nine kills, five service aces and 22 digs. Laura Barness paced the Knights with 23 digs. Heather La Chapelle had 31 assists and 14 digs, and Rachel Popielarz had 20 assists and 11 digs. Annie Eckhoff, Libby Ritz and Kunelius had six blocks apiece.
