MATCH #12

St. Mary’s University (4-9/0-3 MIAC) at #4 Concordia College (10-1/3-0 MIAC)

September 23, 2006

Olson Forum

MATCH TIME: 3 p.m.

SERIES: Concordia leads the series 23-11-0

SERIES STARTED: 1981

LAST YEAR: Concordia beat St. Mary’s 3-1 (30-17, 30-23, 28-30, 30-20) in Winona to complete a rare back-to-back road weekend sweep for the Cobbers.

Concordia used a 17-7 run at the end of game one to cruise to a 30-17 victory. The Cobbers pulled away in the middle of the second game to post a 30-23 win. After dropping the third game 30-28, Concordia came back to win game four 30-20 and gain the victory.

Becca Shane and Danielle Norby continue to be the front players for a dangerous attack. Shane had match-highs in kills (15) and service aces (3). Norby added 11 kills and six blocks.

Mackenzie Close had a solid match defensively at the net. She posted a season-high eight blocks. She also recorded eight kills. Michelle Honek and Emily Gilbertson led the Cobber dig crew. Honek had a team-high 17 digs and Gilbertson added 10. Honek had 41 digs over the two-match weekend and has finished with double-digit dig totals in three of the team’s last six matches. Jill Hance had 26 assists and Alyssa Dahl chipped in another 12.

COBBER KILLS

· The Cobbers enter today’s match ranked No.4 in the country in the latest AVCA poll and have won three straight matches. That winning streak also coincided with the start of the MIAC season so the Cobbers have jumped out to a 3-0 conference start. They are one of only two teams entering Friday night’s matches that have not lost a match in league play. At 10-1 overall, Concordia also owns the best non-conference record in the league. The 10 wins marks the 13th consecutive season Concordia has won at least 10 matches on the year.

· The 10-1 season start marks the second straight year the Cobbers have won 10 of their first 11 matches. Last year the Cobbers dropped their 12th match of the season (3-2 loss at Carleton) but then ran off a streak of 11 straight matches on their way to their third straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

· Cobber head coach Tim Mosser is nearing another coaching milestone. Heading into today’s match, he has 98 career victories in conference play. He is currently 98-49 (.667) in the MIAC and 254-169 (.600) overall.

· Cobber senior Becca Shane currently has 182 kills on the year. That total is a little more than half of her season total from last year (359). Her highest season total in the previous three seasons is 376 in her sophomore year. She currently leads the MIAC in attack percentage (.406), kills and blocks per game (1.49).

One of the many keys for the Cobbers during their first 11 matches has been their stellar defensive play. Concordia leads the MIAC in opponent’s attack percentage (.120) and is second in blocks per game (2.83). Two Cobber unsung heroes have helped push the CC defense.

Senior Anna Walden and sophomore Abby Scheel have played consistent defense in the past two weeks. Walden is second on the team in digs (135) and is third in service aces (11). Scheel’s presence at the net has been felt by opponents. She leads the team in solo blocks (21) and is second in total blocks (36).

· After today’s tilt, Concordia will go on the road for the next five matches. The Cobbers will play at Macalester on Wednesday, Sept. 27 and then travel to St. Paul to play in the Minnesota/Iowa Border Battle Tournament on Oct. 6-7. The next home match for Concordia will be on Wednesday, Oct. 11 at 7 p.m.

· Like the Cobber varsity, the Concordia JV volleyball team is off to a quick start in 2006. The reserves are 3-1 on the year after winning their first three matches.

CARDINAL KILLS:

· Four of SMU’s nine losses have been by 3-0 scores, while two of the Cardinals’ four wins have needed the maximum five games.

· Theresa Perrini (Fairway, Kan.) — the MIAC Setter/Libero of the Week for Sept. 11 — collected 29 digs vs. Bethel, just missing her fourth straight 30-plus dig performance of the season. Perrini has now had 20 or more digs in seven of SMU’s 12 matches.

· Breanna Benham (Deer River, Wis.) dished out 37 assists vs. the Royals, and has averaged 44.6 assists in SMU’s last six matches.

· Pam Stanton (Mundelein, Ill.) blasted a match- and career-high 20 kills vs. Bethel. Stanton’s 20 kills are also a team high this season.

· Molli Dant (Forest City, Iowa) is the Cardinals’ kill leader with 148 (3.36 kills/game), while Ashley Wendlandt (Litchfield, Minn.) boasts team-bests in attack percentage (.229) and blocks (32).

COBBER LAST MATCH RECAP

The switch went off. The switch went on. The switch went back off, and thankfully for No.4-ranked Concordia, the switch had one more change and it finished in the up position. The Cobbers survived a scare from upset-minded Augsburg and crawled away with a 3-2 (30-25, 30-16, 23-30, 22-30, 15-7) victory. It is the first time this season that the Cobbers have played a five-game match. The win helps Concordia remain perfect in conference play with a 3-0 record. The Cobbers are now 11-1 and have won three straight. Augsburg loses their second match in the MIAC. The Auggies were coming off a huge 3-2 win over Bethel on Friday. For Augsburg, it was their third five-game match of the year. They are now 1-2 in those matches. The loss evens the Auggies overall record at 6-6, which is as many wins as they had in all of 2005.

Concordia had four players record double-digit kill totals. The quartet was led by AVCA DIII National Player of the Week award-winner Becca Shane. Shane had a team-high 16 kills and a match-high six blocks. Lindsay Sipma continued her upward trend by finishing with 14 kills, two blocks and a trio of digs. Danielle Dahl and Michelle Honek each had 10 kills to round out the Cobber front-line attack. Alyssa Dahl and Kaitlin Anderson both had 24 assists to guide the CC offense, and Anna Walden posted a team-high 30 digs.

The Auggies were led by junior Katie LaGrave who finished with a match-high 17 kills. She also added 14 digs and two blocks. Dani Boner had 11 kills and Barbara Simmons chipped in 10 more kills. Haley Bower captained the Augsburg defense by amassing a match-high 33 digs.

As a team, Concordia had 68 kills and hit .172. The bad news for the Cobbers is that they had 14 service errors and only five service aces. Augsburg hit .085 and had 56 kills. The Auggies had 128 digs in the five-game affair.

CARDINAL LAST MATCH RECAP

(Courtesy of the St. Mary’s SID)

ST. JOSEPH, Minn. — With a Game 1 win and a 29-28 lead in the second game, the Saint Mary’s University volleyball team appeared to be well on its way to snapping its three-match losing streak.

Then the momentum shifted — and the Cardinals’ hopes of their first win since a 3-2 win over Bethel on September 9 shifted with it.

Saint Benedict rattled off the last three points of that second game and never looked back, keeping the Cardinals winless in three Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference matches with a 3-1 (28-30, 31-29, 30-15, 30-19) win Friday evening.

"It was a tough loss, because early on we really had everything going our way," said SMU coach Mike Lester. "Volleyball is such a game of momentum swings, and that was the difference tonight. We were one point away from going up 2-0, and instead, (Saint Benedict) rattled off three straight points to win that second game and we never recovered."

Molli Dant (Forest City, Iowa) led the way for the Cardinals, collecting 16 kills and 14 digs, while Pam Stanton (Mundelein, Ill.) added 13 kills and eight digs, and Breanna Benham (Deer River, Wis.) dished out 40 assists.

"We put ourselves in a good position early on in the match,” said Lester, whose team returns to action Saturday afternoon, traveling to Concordia for a 3 p.m. MIAC match. "We played so well in those first two games — we committed only 12 (attack) errors in those two games combined — and then we go out and commit 13 errors in the third game alone.

"Once that second game ended, we just couldn't seem to get ourselves back on track."
