ANOTHER PLAYOFF BERTH - ZZZZ

Concordia earned its seventh straight MIAC playoff berth by sweeping Gustavus last night. The Cobbers are now 7-1 in conference play and tied for second place with St. Ben’s. CC has won six straight league matches and appears ready to claim another top three conference finish. Concordia has finished in the top three in the MIAC in the regular season three of the past four seasons. Of the six previous playoff berths, the Cobbers have only finished out of the top four of the league on one occasion. That was back in 2001, the inaugural MIAC single elimination playoff tournament.

DIG THAT

Junior defensive specialist Anna Tinkham continues to help the Cobbers with her outstanding defensive prowess. Tinkham had a match-high 39 digs last night against Gustavus and now needs only five more to break the school record for digs in a single season. Tinkham currently has 454 digs this season and is tracking down the mark of 458 set by Rhiannon Grimm in 2003. Tinkham has now 617 digs for her career and is closing in on the career top ten list at Concordia. The career digs record is 1,067 held by Angie Carlin from 1994-96.

OFFENSE BY COMMITTEE

The Cobbers had six players finish with at least five kills in last night’s victory. That is starting to become a trend for CC as the younger players on the team start rising to the occasion and helping senior Michelle Honék on the attack force. All told, in six of the past eight matches, Concordia has had at least five players with five kills. CC has six players with over 100 kills on the year. Only three other teams in the MIAC have as many 100-plus kill players.

STOP THE STEAK

Carleton comes into today’s match on a two-match losing streak – their longest of the season. After winning 17 of their first 18 matches of the season, the Knights dropped MIAC matches at home to Bethel (3-0) and then on the road at St. Ben’s (3-2) on Wednesday. The Knights are currently 5-3 in the MIAC. They are also ranked 20th in the latest AVCA national poll and third in the recent NCAA Central Region rankings. After today’s match, Carleton will end the season with matches vs. St. Mary’s and St. Olaf.

CARLETON NOTES

- The Carleton College volleyball team climbed four spots to No. 20 in last week’s American Volleyball Coaches Association poll. Heather La Chapelle (Sr./Eagan, Minn.) is sixth among Division III setters with 12.77 assists per game.
- Carleton maintains the top winning percentage (.850) among all MIAC teams.
- Annie Eckhoff (So./Northfield, Minn.) leads the MIAC with a .429 attack percentage during conference play. She is eighth with 3.96 kills per game and fourth with 1.22 blocks per game during MIAC action.

SERIES HISTORY

Concordia’s 3-0 win at home last season snipped a three-match losing skid to the Knights. Carleton had won three straight during the 2004 and 2005 seasons including a 3-1 win the first round of the NCAA playoffs in 2005. The Cobbers have not lost at home to the Knights since 1993 – a streak that encompasses eight straight matches. The biggest victory of those home wins was in 2004 when CC swept Carleton to win the MIAC playoff championship...before Carleton’s win during the 2004 regular season, Concordia had beaten the Knights 12 straight times and 17 of the past 18...the Knights dominated the early stages of the series history by winning nine of the first 12 matches played.

I really believe we have the potential to push past some of those situations, or maybe not get in those situations.

“Our best players need to be on the court together for us to be successful this year,” explained Jaynes. “We need trying to find court time for everyone. But simply having a deep roster does not guarantee success in the MIAC.

Amber Connor has improved her game and could be a offensive presence while Sarah Halls will factor into the rotation on the game. Katie Stanchak brings three years of experience to the team from the outside hitter position. Amber Connor is a defensive specialist and could again see time as a setter, a role she filled last season as she totaled 4.6 assists per game. Ritz’s .225 hitting average also ranked third on the team in blocks (75) and attack percentage (.264), while ranking second in kills with 2.7 per game. Echhoff started 22 matches setting a lot of records.”

Head Coach – Heidi Luehmann Jaynes (9th season)

Meet The Head Coach – Heidi Luehmann Jaynes

Heidi Luehmann Jaynes, the MIAC Coach of the Year in 2003 and 2004 and the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) central region coach of the year in 2004, has led the Knights to five consecutive winning seasons, an unprecedented streak in Carleton volleyball history. The Knights are 95-37 during the five-year stretch and have recorded top-three conference finishes in each of the last three seasons. She led the Knights to the 2004 MIAC regular-season title and MIAC Playoff title game appearances in 2003 and 2004. The Knights were nationally ranked in 2004, rising as high as 16th in the AVCA Division III top 25, and were ranked the entire 2005 season, getting as high as ninth heading into the NCAA Championships.

2007 CARLETON PREVIEW (Courtesy of the Carleton SID)

The Carleton College volleyball team heads into the 2007 season with an experienced and deep roster which creates high expectations for the Knights after finishing in the top three in the final MIAC standings each of the last three years. Head coach Heidi Jaynes returns 11 players from last season’s squad that went 13-11, including a 7-4 mark in the MIAC as Carleton tied with St. Thomas for third in the conference standings. Leading the returnees for the Knights is senior Heather La Chapelle, who is a four-year starter for the Knights and averaged 8.7 assists and 3.2 digs per game last season. For her career, she has totaled 2,606 assists, an average of 9.62 per game. “Heather’s pretty amazing,” said Jaynes. “She will be close to setting some records with assists, and she was wasn’t our only setter the last four years. We would run a 6-2 and she had to split time with our other setters, yet she’s still close to setting a lot of records.”

Heather La Chapelle is closing in on Carleton’s all-time assists record of 3,010 and is on pace to break the ranking four in kills with 2.0 per game. Megan La Chapelle finished fourth on the Knights with 1.8 kills per game and was third in digs with 3.2 per game.

The list of returning players goes even longer for the Knights. Senior Rachel Popielarz will likely be called upon as a defensive specialist and could again see time as a setter, a role she filled last season as she totaled 4.6 assists per game. Katie Stanchak brings three years of experience to the team from the outside hitter position. Amber Connor has improved her game and could be a offensive presence while Sarah Halls will factor into the rotation on the right side. With a talented and deep roster, Coach Jaynes most difficult task during the 2007 season might be trying to find court time for everyone. But simply having a deep roster does not guarantee success in the MIAC.

“Our best players need to be on the court together for us to be successful this year,” explained Jaynes. “We need to be a close team and bond so we can get through some of those rough patches we’re bound to have in a season. I really believe we have the potential to push past some of those situations, or maybe not get in those situations in the first place.”
