GAMEDAY GAME NOTES

COBBER CORNERS

- Concordia enters today’s game against St. Thomas with a 3-1 record. The Cobbers dropped their season opener to No. 25 UC-Santa Cruz and have since rattled off three straight victories. CC beat Carthage (Wis.) 1-0 in their final game in California over the Labor Day Weekend and then swept two games at the Gustavus tournament last weekend. Concordia needed overtime to beat Nebraska Wesleyan 2-1 on Saturday and then pounded previously unbeaten Grinnell (Iowa) 2-0 on Sunday. Against Grinnell, the Cobbers outshot the Pioneers 31-2.

- The Cobbers are ranked ninth in the NSCAA Central Region poll that was released earlier today. The Cobbers flip-flopped with conference foe Augustana last week being ranked behind the Auggies. Macalester is the only other MIAC school that is regionally ranked. The Scots are ranked second in the region and ninth in the national poll. The Cobbers’ Sunday opponent, UW-Eau Claire is currently the top team in the region and sixth in the nation.

- Concordia senior Morgan Bain has picked up right where she left off last season. Bain has four of the Cobbers’ five goals on the year and has scored all three game-winning goals for CC. She currently has 122 career points and needs only 16 more to break the program record of 137 held by Angie Tohm (’97). She is currently tied with Kendra Lee (’03) for second on the list.

- Sophomore goalie Britt Reiersgord has been in the net for all three Cobber victories this season. She has a pair of shutouts on the year and currently sports a 0.33 goals against average.

- Concordia is 3-1 in home openers under current head coach Dan Weiler. The only loss coming last season against the University of Mary. The Cobbers are a perfect 2-0 when the home opener comes against an MIAC opponent during Weiler’s reign.

- The Cobbers went 6-1 last season at home against MIAC opponents. They did that one better in ’04 by sporting a perfect 7-0 mark against conference foes. If you are scoring at home – CC is 13-1 at home against the MIAC in the past two seasons.

- From the “What’s New” category – Two new faces can be found on the Cobber bench this season. Head Coach Dan Weiler is joined by 1st-year assistant Matt Stucke and graduate assistant Kelly Ping. Matt comes to the Cobbers after a career as a player at the University of Mary (where he was 1-1 against the Cobbers and lost to CC at “The Jake” in his senior season!) and Kelly returns to the Cobbers after one of the all-time great seasons as a player in 2005. She led CC in scoring last season and was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Team (not a bad role model for this year’s players!).

TOMMIE TACKLES:

(season preview courtesy of UST SID)

- The Tommies (0-1-1 overall, 0-0 MIAC) are in the midst of a grueling seven-day stretch. Saturday they lost 4-3 at UW-Stevens Points. They start conference play Tuesday at Concordia-Moorhead, then play Friday at Macalester. The Cobbers and Scots combined to go 35-4-5 last season.

- UST rallied from a 3-1 deficit at Stevens Points but allowed the game-winning breakaway goal with 11 seconds to play. Abigail Krause, Jade Crepps and Sarah Balgord had goal for UST.

- St. Thomas had a Sept. 3 home game vs. Loras cancelled due to weather. The Toms tied UW-LaCrosse 1-1 on Sept. 1 on a late goal by freshman Kendra Gapinski of Spring Lake Park. UST opens its home season Sept. 17 vs. Cornell.

COBBER LAST GAME RECAP
Concordia opens MIAC regular-season play on Tuesday against St. Thomas. The Cobbers spent Sunday afternoon making sure that all components were in working order and primed for a run at the MIAC title. Concordia’s offense finally clicked into high gear as they pounded the Grinnell goal for 31 shots en route to a 2-0 victory, their third straight since dropping the opener to No. 25 UC-Santa Cruz.

Not surprisingly for the Cobbers, senior forward Morgan Bain had a big hand in the final score. The highly proficient goal scorer produced both of the Concordia goals and finished the game with an impressive 12 total shots, seven of which were on net. She also had at least two other shots that clanked off the crossbar and goal post.

The Cobbers were finally able to play a full game without sputtering through lackluster periods of the game. The defense shut down the Pioneers, allowing only two shots the entire game, while the offense routinely found space behind the overmatched Grinnell back line. Despite the control of the game, Concordia was unable to break onto the scoreboard until the 43rd minute of the game. Bain snuck in behind the Pioneer defense and flicked a ball with her head over the Pioneer goalie and into the back of the net. For Bain it was her second head goal in as many games after not scoring with her head for the first three seasons of her collegiate career.

Grinnell stayed in the game until the final seven minutes as goalie Liz Carrier was able to turn back chance after chance in the second half. Carrier finished with 13 saves in the game, seven of which came in the final 45 minutes.

Concordia, and Bain, put the game away for good at the 83:30 mark when she finished off a passing sequence that started with defender Andrea Purcell, went through midfielder Amy Ravenhorst before finally reaching Bain and ultimately the back of the net.

Cobber goalie Britt Reiersgord made only two saves in the game to pick up her second shutout of the season. She is now 3-0 on the year and has only allowed one goal in 275 minutes of action.

TOMMIE LAST GAME RECAP
Something about St. Thomas brings out the last-second heroics in UW-Stevens Point women’s soccer player Kimie Wiepz. For the second time in her career, the junior scored a clutch game-winning goal against the Tommies, tallying a goal with 11 seconds remaining on Saturday to give the Pointers a 4-3 win at the Pointer Soccer Bowl. Wiepz was also the Tommies’ nemesis in their last visit to Stevens Point, scoring with 22 seconds left in the first overtime for a 2-1 victory in 2004.

For most of the match it didn’t appear the Pointers (2-1-1) would need any last second drama as they cruised along with a 3-1 lead before the Tommies (0-1-1) struck for two goals in a 52-second span with just under 24 minutes remaining. St. Thomas goaliekeeper Dana Vilar also kept her team in the match by saving a penalty kick with 5:22 remaining after Pointers defender Abbey Kichdoerfer made a long run and was taken down in the penalty box.

However, the Pointers withstood all the St. Thomas momentum and scored the winning goal on a three-on-two breakaway led by Amanda Prawat to earn just their third win ever while allowing three goals or more and first since a 4-3 win over UW-Oshkosh on Sept. 20, 1989.

Prawat also assisted the first goal of the match, dishing to Kaylee Weise for a soft chip just inside the near post at the 11:04 mark. St. Thomas’ Abigail Krause evened the match 17 minutes later with a 20-yard kick that floated into the upper at the far post. UW-Stevens Point rallied just two minutes later as Anna Van Stippen scored off a pass from Weise and Prawat notched a goal on a breakaway off a long feed from Liz Kid.

The Pointers appeared to be in full control of the match before a foul gave the Tommies a free kick five yards outside the penalty box. Jade Crepps launched a perfect kick into the upper corner to pull St. Thomas within a goal and the Tommies rode the momentum into another goal from Sarah Balgord to tie the match.
