LOOKING FOR A STREAK STOPPER
Concordia is winless in its last three games. The Cobbers are coming off a 1-1 double overtime tie at Augsburg on Wednesday. Before that game, CC lost a pair of 1-0 decisions in the Cobber Invite. Concordia played an even game with No.9-ranked UW-Eau Claire on Sept. 7 and then failed to find the net, and paid the price in the final minutes, against St. Scholastica. The three-game winless streak is the longest since last season when they tied Macalester and then dropped a pair of road games at the University of Chicago and UW- La Crosse. The Cobbers have not had a four-game winless streak since the end of the 2003 season.

FIRST HALF DEFENSIVE WALL
Concordia has not been scored upon in the first half this season. The streak has now reached 287:29 dating all the way back to the MIAC tournament championship game when Carleton scored a goal at the 27:31 mark.

DANDY DEFENSE
The first half success by the Concordia defense is just a microcosm of the team’s overall play in 2007. The Cobbers are currently ranked second in the league in goals against average. They have allowed only 11 shots on goal in their first five games for an average of 2.2 per game. CC keeper Britt Reiersgord is also second in the MIAC in goals against average. She has a 0.71 goals against average.

CONFERENCE OPENER TOE STUB
After posting an impressive 3-1 record to start the season and climbing all the way to 10th in the NSCAA Central Region poll, Gustavus stumbled out of the blocks in their MIAC opener against St. Olaf on Wednesday. In the game, the Oles scored in the 19th minute and then made that hold up to come away with the one-goal win. For the game, St. Olaf outshot Gustavus 12-9.

CHEESE HEADS
Gustavus split a pair of non-conference games against WIAC schools last weekend. Coach Mike Stehlik’s squad lost to UW-Stevens Point 3-1 at home on Friday and then defeated UW-Stout 4-0 in Menomonie on Saturday night.

TERRIFIC TUPY
Gustavus junior forward Christy Tupy (Eagan, Minn./Burnsville) had scored at least one point in every game this season until the conference opener against the Oles. She tallied goals in the wins over Simpson, Grinnell, and UW-Stout and she recorded an assist in the loss to UW-Stevens Point. Tupy leads the team in scoring with three goals and one assist for seven points.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY
In an effort to offer fans a little trivial knowledge this year, the Gameday staff has decided to use the bottom of each program to let everyone know what happened in history on today’s date.

MEET THE 2007 GUSTIES

The Gustavus Adolphus College women’s soccer team returns six starters and 14 letterwinners from a team that finished with a mark of 8-8-2 overall, and 5-4-2 (sixth) in the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (MIAC) last season. Coach Mike Stehlik will build the 2007 squad around senior forward Jenna Iaizzo (White Bear Lake, Minn.), the team’s leading returning scorer, and defender Rachel Iblings (sophomore, Plymouth, Minn.). Both were honorable mention all-conference performers last season.

Iaizzo, a two-year starter at forward, will lead the team’s attack. She tallied four goals and two assists for ten points in 18 games a year ago. At six-feet tall, Iaizzo is a big target for the Gusties who will look to play the ball to her in the air. Other returners at forward for Gustavus will be junior Christy Tupy (Eagan, Minn.), who contributed one goal and two assists for four points last year, and sophomore Chelsea Craven (Sauk Rapids, Minn.), who tallied two goals for four points.

In the midfield, Coach Stehlik welcomes back two starters including junior Callie Christensen (Bloomington, Minn.) and sophomore Becca Hagen (Minneapolis, Minn.). Christensen missed a significant portion of last season with an ankle injury, but she appears healthy to start the 2007 season, while Hagen stepped right in and made a significant contribution as a first year player last year. She started 13 games, scoring two goals. Others expected to contribute in the midfield include junior Ashley Voigtlander (Lino Lakes, Minn.), sophomore Kirsten Thulien (Burnsville, Minn.), senior Amy Kunkel (St. Cloud, Minn.), and senior Tami Korb (Rapid City, So. Dak.).

Defensively, the team will be led by sophomore defenders Rachel Iblings and Alison Dittmer (Plymouth, Minn.), and sophomore goalkeeper Ashley Ohlson (Anchorage, Alaska). Iblings and Dittmer started every game in the back for the Gusties last year and the young duo will anchor the unit this year. Ohlson was moved into the starting goalkeepers role last year after Julie Mahre suffered a season-ending knee injury four games into the season. Ohlson performed well compiling a mark of 6-4-1 with a 1.07 goals against average. Others expected to contribute include junior Jamie Tsurusaki (Apple Valley, Minn.) and junior Britta Peterson (Stillwater, Minn.) in the field, and first year Chelsea Bayer (Rogers, Minn.) at goalkeeper.
