GAME 31 – CONCORDIA vs. UM-MORRIS – APRIL 25, 2006 – JAKE CHRISTIANSEN AC

Game Day Opening Pitch
(What you need to know about today’s Concordia-UM-Morris match-up)
- Good news for Cobber baseball fans, there will be no split today. Today’s game is a single, nine-inning contest. It marks the final non-conference game of the year for Concordia. The Cobbers are currently 8-8 in non-conference match-ups.
- Concordia is coming off another conference split. On Saturday, the Cobbers blanked Augustana 7-0 in the first game and then lost 18-3 in the second game. In the opener, Blake Trenbeath pitched a complete game to pick up his fifth win of the year.
- The Cobbers are currently 6-8 in the MIAC and trail fourth-place Gustavus by 2.5 games. Concordia finishes off conference play by playing at Carleton and then hosting St. Mary’s and Hamline. The Gameday staff is predicting that Concordia will have to post a 5-1 record to have any chance of making the playoffs. A perfect 6-0 mark should get them into the postseason as that would run their final league record to 12-8. Last year 12-8 made the playoffs and in seven of the past nine seasons, a 12-8 record has been good enough to enter the league playoffs.
- In order to have a chance at making the playoffs and doing damage in the postseason, Concordia will have to find a reliable second starting pitcher. Cobber ace Blake Trenbeath owns three of the six conference victories for the team and is 2-0 with a 0.64 ERA in his last two MIAC starts.
- One of the hottest hitters for the Cobbers this past week has been catcher Kyle Johnson. Although he went hitless against Augustana, Johnson was 5-for-10 in the other series last week and was pounding the ball all over the park. He raised his season average to .259.
- UM-Morris enters today’s game after a 1-2 weekend at Bethany Lutheran. The Cobbers have lost four of the past five games and are currently 9-21 on the year. The one common opponent Morris has with the Cobbers is Mayville State. The Cobbers were swept by the Comets 14-3 and 6-5. Concordia will play at Mayville on May 2.
- The Cobbers have had a hard time on the road this season. Morris is 6-2 at home but a mere 2-13 on the road.
- UM-Morris is led by sophomore Nick Hervin. Hervin leads the team with a .351 average. He also leads the team in on-base percentage (.473) and home runs (2).
- Shawn O’Neil enters today’s game on a four-game hitting streak. He leads the team with nine multiple-hit games and is currently batting .263.

Game 31
UM-Morris (9-21)
at
Concordia College (14-16)
April 25, 2006
Jake Christiansen Athletic Complex
Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 4:00 p.m.
SERIES: Concordia leads 11-4
LAST TIME THEY MET: The last time these two teams met was back in 2003 when Concordia outscored UM-Morris 17-5 to pick up the victory in Moorhead. The teams were supposed to play in 2004 in Morris but rain cancelled the game and it was never made up. They were also scheduled to play last season in a doubleheader on Apr. 12 but that series was rained out as well. In 2003, Concordia pouted out 13 hits and scored 17 runs en route to the win. The Cobbers started slow, allowing the Cougars to score four runs in the first two innings. Concordia changed the momentum in the game by posting a five-spot in the bottom of the second inning to take a 6-4 lead. Concordia added three runs in the fourth inning and then a pair of four-run innings in the sixth and seventh innings to come away with the 12-run victory.

Current Cobber assistant coach Derek Dormanen was 3-for-5 with two RBI’s to lead the offensive attack. Ben Kvidt went 2-for-4 with a game-high four RBI’s for Concordia as well. UM-Morris catcher Sam Poegel went 3-for-4.

SERIES HISTORY: Concord has won the last nine meetings between the two teams. The last time UM-Morris defeated the Cobbers was on Apr. 5, 1992 in Morris. During those nine wins for the Cobbers, Concordia has outscored UM-Morris 78-34. Of those nine wins, seven have come at home at the Jake Christiansen Athletic Complex...the Cobbers own a 7-2 record against the Cougars in all games played at home. The last time UM-Morris won at Concordia was on Apr. 18, 1990 when they swept a doubleheader 3-0, 8-5...there have been only one single game in the series (2003). All the other games have been played as part of a doubleheader...there have been only two shutouts in the 15-game series. Each team has posted one blanking. The last shutout recorded between the teams was back in 1990 when the Cougars won 3-0...the most runs scored by a single team in a game in the series is 19. The Cobbers beat UM-Morris 19-4 back in 1998.

Head Coach – Mark Fohl #27
Asst. Coaches – Don Goracke #8, Todd Hickman #26, Seth Miller #25

UM-Morris Season Outlook

Minnesota-Morris was 10-20 overall and 5th in the Upper Midwest Athletic Conference (UMAC) in 2005. The Cougars return six starters from that team, five of whom earned all-conference selection in 2005. UMM will also have to replace one of the top pitchers in the league last year in Jeff Wold. Wold was a second-team all-conference pick last year and led the team in pitching with a 7-4 record and a 4.01 era.

Joe Fayden (Jr. Great Falls, MT) leads the list of returning player for Head Coach Mark Fohl. Fayden was a first-team all-conference player last year and led the team and conference in hitting with a .425 average. He had a team high 19 rbi's and of his 45 hits 16 went for extra bases. Joe had 10 doubles, four triples and two home runs and hit for the cycle in the Cougars 14-9 win over Presentation.

Adam Torkelson (Jr. Litchfield, MN) was named honorable mention all-conference last year and was second on the team in hitting with a .345 average. Adam led the Cougars with 10 walks and 21 runs scored to go along with 12 runs batted in.

Greg Roth (So. Cold Spring, MN) was third in hitting at .300 with 21 hits and was named second-team allconference. He also made 10 appearances on the mound for the Cougars. Shawn O'Neil (Sr. East Grand Forks, MN) was a second-team all-conference pick last year. O'Neil hit .295 last year and was also 1-3 on the mound in seven appearances.

An honorable mention pick last year, Nick Hervin (So. Cold Spring, MN) was a .258 hitter and 1-5 on the hill for UMM. Hervin started seven games, with two complete games and had 20 strike outs in 40 innings. With six returning starters and six pitchers that saw duty on the hill last year back, the Cougars look to improve on the 10 wins from one year ago.

The pitching staff has the experience from last year to build on and six of the teams top hitters are back so that should help improve the offensive numbers as well. Minnesota-Morris opens the 2006 season with their annual trip to Ft. Myers, Florida March 5-9. The Cougars home and UMAC conference opener is set for Friday March 31st against Martin Luther College. Minnesota-Morris made their first ever appearance in the UMAC post-season tournament one year ago after finishing in fifth place in the league.
