GAME #26
NDSU (9-22/2-9 The Summit) at
CONCORDIA COLLEGE (13-12/6-8 MIAC)

April 29, 2008
Jake Christiansen Complex
Moorhead, Minn.

GAME TIME: 4 p.m. (1 – nine-inning game)
SERIES: NDSU leads 55-32-1
SERIES STARTED: 1909
SERIES SYNOPSIS: Today’s game marks the first meeting between the border rivals since the 2005 season. In that game, NDSU scored seven times in the fifth inning en route to a 17-3 victory at Newman Outdoor Stadium. It is the first game between the teams played at Jake Christiansen Athletic Complex since 2003 when NDSU prevailed 11-0. The Bison have won six of the past seven meetings between the two teams in a stretch that dates back to 1998. The lone win for the Cobbers during that streak came in 2004 when CC won 12-8 at NDSU. In that game Concordia used four home runs to beat the Bison. Ryan Hebrink hit a pair of HR’s for the Cobbers. Brian Schumacher and Scott Johnson hit solo shots in the game to finish off the Concordia long ball attack. CC wasted only one inning before jumping on top of the Bison. In the second frame, the Cobbers put their first two batters on base and then benefited from a costly Bison error to score the first two runs of the game. Concordia added to the lead in the third inning when they scored three more runs all via the long ball. North Dakota State was able to get a solo run in the bottom of the fourth inning before the roof fell in on the Bison in the top half of the fifth. The Cobbers scored seven runs in the frame and sent 12 men to the plate. The highlight of the inning was Hebrink’s three-run blast that put Concordia up 8-1. NDSU scored the final seven runs of the game, but by then the game was well in hand for the Cobbers. The Cobbers hammered out 13 hits in the game, and seven of the nine starting hitters amassed at least one hit. Schumacher and Scott Johnson led the Cobber offense by getting three hits each. Schumacher finished the game 3-for-4 with three runs scored, and Johnson was 3-for-5 with two runs scored and two RBI’s hitting from the leadoff spot...NDSU has also claimed wins in nine of the past 11 meetings between the two schools...the last six games in the series have all featured double-digit run totals for the winning team...the most runs scored by a single team in the series in a game is 24 by the Cobbers when CC posted a 24-15 win at home on May 5, 1997...the longest winning streak by either team in the series is six games. Concordia won six straight from 1988 through 1992.

CONCORDIA UPDATE
Concordia returns to the diamond today to square off against non-conference foe NDSU. The Cobbers had a pair of doubleheaders postponed over the weekend thanks to the spring-like storm that came through the F-M area on Friday and Saturday. CC was swept by Bethel (8-4 & 5-4) in their lone doubleheader last week. That series gave the Cobbers a serious case of the “woulda, coulda, shoulda’s.” In the opener, Concordia gave up five unearned runs and lost by four, and in the second game they conceded a three-run, walk-off homer in the bottom of the seventh. The two losses drop the Cobbers’ overall record to 13-12 on the season.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY
Concordia junior catcher Kyle Johnson continues to tear through MIAC pitching this season. Johnson currently has a program record 19-game hitting streak. He has a chance to become the first player in program history to hit safely in 20 straight games today. Johnson leads the Cobbers in hitting in 2008 with a .448 average. He is currently leading the MIAC in RBI’s (19) and total bases (45) and is tied for the league lead in home runs (4) in conference games.

THE .400 CLUB
The Cobbers have three players this year hitting above .400. Besides Kyle Johnson, junior first baseman Scott Schumacher is batting .414 and sophomore outfielder Nick Lewis is hitting .408. The last time CC had a player hit above .400 was in 2006 when Billy DeNet hit .418 for the season. The last time Concordia finished the season with more than one player hitting above the .400 level was back in 1992.

A BETTER BRAND OF ALUMINUM
Concordia is currently batting .316 this season. That is fourth in the MIAC and an increase of over 30 percentage points from last season when they hit .280. The Cobber record for team average in a single season is .344 set back in 1985.

UP NEXT
Concordia has three conference doubleheaders to finish off the regular season. After taking a break for finals this week after today’s game, the Cobbers will play St. Mary’s at Winona State on Saturday and then return home to host St. Thomas on Monday, May 5 at 1 p.m. and Augsburg on Tuesday, May 6 at 1 p.m.

NDSU UPDATE
NDSU heads into today’s game after a nine-day layoff. The last game action for the Bison came on Apr. 20 when they dropped a 6-5 decision at Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne. That loss ended a two-game win streak for NDSU which happened to be their first two wins in Summit league history. The Bison have had a mixed bag in 2008. They have posted wins over the University of Minnesota and Cleveland State and have close losses to Kansas, Creighton and league-leading Oral Roberts. On the other side of the spectrum, they also have double-digit losses to Oklahoma, Wichita State and league-leading Oral Roberts.

LONG ON LANGLAIS
NDSU is led in hitting by senior shortstop Ryan Langla. He is currently hitting .322 and named Co-Player of the Week in the Summit League on April 21. He has currently hit safely in 11 straight games and is coming off a 10-for-21 (.476) weekend at IPFW.

A LONG DAY AT THE OFFICE
North Dakota State’s 17-inning loss to Southern Utah on April 12 is now the longest game listed in the NDSU baseball record book. It went longer than the 16-inning 2-1 loss to MSU Moorhead on May 10, 1972. NDSU and Southern Utah were tied at 5 after nine regulation innings before going scoreless into the 17th. A bad-hop single with two outs scored the first two runs of a seven-run frame for SUU. The game lasted 5 hours, 26 minutes and seven pitchers combined to throw 607 pitches.

MIAC Players of the Week
April 28, 2008

Player of the Week
St. Olaf College sophomore outfielder Tyler Jones (Farmington, Minn.) extended his hitting streak to six over the Oles’ 5-0 week, as he went a combined 8-for-10 in a sweep of Saint Mary’s on Tuesday, 4-for-7 against Gustavus on Wednesday and 2-for-3 on Sunday against Carleton. His 14-for-20 week, helped by his third and fourth four-hit games of the year on Tuesday, raised his average from .337 to .408.

Pitcher of the Week
Hamline University senior pitcher Josh Roiger (West St. Paul, Minn./Sibley) led the Pipers to a road sweep of the #13 Tommies last week, coming in from left field for the save in the seventh inning of the opener. He then returned to the mound 30 minutes later to pitch a complete-game shutout in game two. The sweep over St. Thomas on their field marked the first time that the Tommies were swept in an MIAC baseball doubleheader in six seasons, covering 62 doubleheaders. It was the first time St. Thomas was swept at home in 10 years. While facing the minimum number of batters in the seventh inning in the game one 6-5 win Roiger struck out two and gave up one hit. In the complete-game shutout in game two, Roiger walked none and gave up just four hits, none with runners on base. He also threw six strikeouts in shutting down the Tommies.

April 20 NDSU 5 @ Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne 6

FORT WAYNE, Ind.—Jared Davis and Garrett Seagraves hit two late home runs to rally IPFW past North Dakota State 6-5 and earn a four-game series split in Summit League baseball Sunday, April 20. Davis hit a two-out, two-run homer to chase NDSU starter Shane Bushland and pull the Mastodons within 4-3 in the seventh, and ninth-hitting Seagraves hit a three-run shot off reliever Chris Paterson with two outs in the eighth to put IPFW ahead 6-4. North Dakota State (9-22, 2-9) got one run back in the top of the ninth when designated hitter Shannon Ekermans led off with his second home run of the year.

Ekermans (2-4) was the losing pitcher despite throwing only two-thirds of an inning in relief of Bushland. He came on to end the seventh but put two of the three go-ahead runs on base in the eighth with a walk and hit-by-pitch. It was the first start of the year for Bushland, who earned a relief win and a save in Saturday’s doubleheader sweep. He allowed three runs on nine hits with five strikeouts and no walks in 6 2/3 innings.Ekermans hit 3-for-4 with two RBIs and two runs scored. Ryan Langlais, Kenny Beebe and David Williams had the only other Bison hits, including Williams’ first home run in the fourth inning that gave NDSU a 3-1 lead.

The Bison started the scoring in the second when Ekermans doubled and Williams walked with one out. Ekermans came in when Kyle Harrison reached on an error and Williams scored on Beebe’s single up the middle with two outs.

IPFW (9-24-1, 5-7) pulled within a run in the bottom of the second when Seagraves lifted a sacrifice fly to center field. It was 3-1 in the sixth when Langlais led off with a single, moved to second on an outfield error, then scored on an Ekermans double one out later to put NDSU ahead 4-1.
