Easton scored 13 runs and got a solid pitching performance from Kyle Johnson who was 2-for-6 and had only one hiccup as he allowed five runs in the fifth inning of the opener. The Cobbers led 2-0 heading into the fifth but then the Cardinals scored five runs on five hits and were helped by two CC errors. SMU had only one hit in the frame. NDSU had two walks and were beaned twice in the bottom of the fourth but only had one hit in the frame. NDSU (17-23) quickly squelched the Cobber comeback threat when they posted their second of three multiple-run innings in the game. The Bison added four runs in the bottom of the fourth but only had one hit in the frame. NDSU had two walks and were beamed twice in the inning that put the game officially out of reach. The Bison would then tack on five more runs in the fifth and one more in the sixth to bring their final total to 19.

NDSU had a season-high 19 hits in the game while Concordia recorded 10 hits. Generex was the only other CC hitter with more than one hit in the game besides Haase. Generex was 2-for-3 and scored a run. Haase has now hit safely in the last eight games and during that time has a .500 average and has three multiple-hit games. The Bison had three players with three hits in the game and were led by Nic Obey who was 2-for-6 and drove in five runs.

The game started off well for the Cobbers in the top of the first as they scored a single run but then quickly unraveled in the bottom of the inning when CC allowed nine runs on five hits and committed three errors. Concordia got on the board to start the game when Haase singled up the middle and drove in Jake Krause from second base. The Bison then scored nine runs in the bottom of the first when they sent 14 batters to the plate. Of the nine runs scored, only three were earned as the Cobbers struggled to field the ball behind starting pitcher Phil Moenkedick.

Concordia (20-14) got to within 9-3 when they scored twice in the top of the fourth inning. Jordan Doschadis led off the inning with a double and then went to third on a single from Lucas Generex. Josh Hintz picked up his fifth on RBI of the year on a sacrifice fly to right field. Generex then came around to score on a single by Krause. NDSU (17-23) quickly squelched the Cobber comeback threat when they posted their second of three multiple-run innings in the game. The Bison added four runs in the bottom of the fourth but only had one hit in the frame. NDSU had two walks and were beamed twice in the inning that put the game officially out of reach. The Bison would then tack on five more runs in the fifth and one more in the sixth to bring their final total to 19.

COBBER NOTES

It’s come down to a four-game season for the Cobbers. Concordia has four home games remaining in the MIAC regular season. If they win all four games they will earn, at least, a share of the MIAC regular season championship – their first since the 1995 season. If CC wins two of the four, they will clinch a spot in the conference tournament. It would be their first postseason appearance since 1995...the Cobbers are 20-14 on the year which marks their first 20-win season since 2006. It is also the 13th 20-win season in the history of the program. The record for wins in a season by a CC team is 30. The 2007 Costello-ICC Cobbers of 1995 went 30-8...Concordia is 6-2 at home this season and 5-1 in MIAC home games...CC has outscored its opponents 70-26 in the game’s first two innings combined...the Cobbers are 18-3 when leading after the sixth inning, but winless (0-9) when trailing heading into the seventh inning...senior outfielder Nick Lewis had his hitting streak end at 20 consecutive games. That ties the school record for most consecutive games with at least one hit. Former All-American Kyle Johnson had a 20-game streak in 2008...fellow senior Nate Haase is the hottest Cobber hitter in the last eight games. Haase has an eight-game hitting streak and during that time has a .500 average and has three multiple-hit games...the Cobbers have 81 stolen bases on the season and have at least one steal in 29 of their 34 games. CC leads the MIAC in steals by 23 and are currently ranked 28th in the NCAA in stolen bases per game.

COBBER BASEBALL 2010

Concordia vs. St. Mary’s – May 6, 2010

SERIES SYNOPSIS:

Erick Sykora allowed five hits and one run while striking out six batters. Concordia owns all five of those shutouts. The last time St. Mary’s has blanked the Cobbers was in 1988 when they beat Concordia 14-0. There have only been five shutouts in the series since the 1988 season. The last time St. Mary’s swept the Cobbers in a pair of 6-5 games in the Jake Christiansen Athletic Complex was in 1960. Concordia leads 41-35 in the series and during that time has a .500 average and has three of the team’s 36 games.

I really like what I've seen out of the guys.”

“We've got a lot of guys with experience on the mound in (college) game situations,” said Winecke. “And so far (this season) SMU returns six of its top seven hitters, while also boasting eight pitchers who threw at least 13 innings a year ago.

And that's just the tip of the iceberg.

I'm excited about the potential of this team,” added Winecke. “If there's one thing I can guarantee, it's that we are going to be an extremely hard-working team and we are going to make sure to get better every single day.”

That may not seem like much, but when you've got 32 guys improving one percent, in reality, we're improving 32 percent each day.”

And Saint Mary's head coach is eager for his Cardinals to improve on a year ago, when SMU went 8-28 in Winecke's first year at the helm.

“Last year was a learning experience for everyone,” said Winceke, whose team capped off its 2009 season with a come-from-behind 5-4 win over nationally ranked St. Thomas in its season finale. “I learned so much about what it takes to be a collegiate head coach, and everyone in the program learned what my expectations are of them.”

With a solid nucleus returning — spearheaded by starting shor tstop Kyle Ryan (St. Paul, Minn.) and reigning All-Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference selection Zach Olberding (Maplewood, Minn.) — those expectations have been ramped up a bit.

2010 ST. MARY'S SEASON PREVIEW

(1) Our motto this season is, 'One Percent Better,'” explained Winceke, whose team kicked off the 2010 campaign on March 10 with a nonconference doubleheader against Mayville State at the HHH Metrodome. “We are striving to improve by one percent every day.

(2) "That may not seem like much, but when you've got 32 guys improving one percent, in reality, we’re improving 32 percent each day.”
