SERIES: St. Thomas leads 73-49
SERIES STARTED: 1922-23
SERIES SYNOPSIS: St. Thomas has won the last three meetings in the series and eight of the last nine. The last time the Cobbers beat the Tommies was on Feb. 20, 2008. Before the eight out of none losses, Concordia had rattled off a stretch of four out of five victories against UST. That run included three straight in 2003-04 including a 74-61 win in the first round of the MIAC playoffs...Concordia is 8-12 against St. Thomas in the last 20 games played in Memorial Auditorium.

LAST GAME RECAP
Concordia 62 at St. Olaf 70
Concordia shot only 29.4% (5-for-17) from three-point range, saw St. Olaf shoot 45.0% (9-for-20) from outside the arc and lost 70-62 in Northfield.

It looked like the Cobbers might break out of their recent funk in the first half as they edged their way to an eight-point lead with 11:17 to go in the opening period. That's when the shooting fairy tapped the Oles on the shoulder and said "go ahead and start draining shots from wherever you want." Over the next four minutes the Oles connected on five-of-six three-point field goals, went on a 15-6 run and grabbed a one-point lead - a lead they would never relinquish. For the final 11:00 of the half, St. Olaf was 10-for-17 (58.8%) from the floor and 6-for-9 (66.7%) from long range. That spurt gave the Oles the confidence to hold off the Cobbers in the second half.

The pivotal period in the final 20 minutes of play came at the midway point. Concordia had trimmed an 11-point deficit to just four points with 11:16 to play. The Cobbers looked like they might take the game to the wire but then an 8-0 Ole run put any comeback thoughts on the back burner. CC could never get within 10 points until the final two minutes of play. Trailing 67-57, the Cobbers made one last run. CC went on a 5-0 mini-run to cut the lead to five points with 36 seconds remaining. Unfortunately Concordia missed a three-pointer and had a turnover in the final 30.6 seconds and the Oles were able to hit three of their four free throws to close out the game.

The Cobber junior trio of Darrin Olmscheid, John Fraase and Karl Olson topped the scoresheet for CC. Olmscheid was 7-for-13 from the floor, finished with a game-high 19 points and added eight rebounds. Fraase collected his sixth double-double of the season by scoring 11 points and grabbing a game-high 14 rebounds. Olson finished with 11 points.

GAME TIME: 7:45 p.m.
EARLIER THIS YEAR: Earlier this year Concordia got down 12-2, scored only six points in the first 10 minutes of play and lost 73-55. The Cobbers were able to cut the early St. Thomas lead to six points at halftime and as few as five points on two occasions in the second half. Unfortunately they were never able to make a big run in the final 10 minutes of play and ended up losing by 18. The game was won around the basket. St. Thomas outrebounded Concordia 33-23 and had a 36-22 advantage in points in the paint. The Tommies' ability to pound the ball inside on the break and in the halfcourt offense led to UST having nine more field goals in the game and shooting 54.0% (27-for-50) from the field. The Cobbers shot 40.9% (18-for-44) from the field and was only 6-for-20 (30.0%) from outside the arc.

The Cobbers were led in scoring by Darrin Olmscheid. Olmscheid kept CC in the game in the first half as he scored a half-high 13 points and was 5-for-7 from the floor and 2-for-2 from behind the arc in the first 20 minutes of play. He finished with a game-high 19 points. Concordia junior all-conference player John Fraase was held to only two points in the game and was only able to get off two field goal attempts in 32 minutes of play as the Tommie defense concentrated on keeping Fraase off of the scoresheet. The two points is the lowest single-game total since his freshman season in 2007-08. Despite his low scoring total, Fraase was able to find the open freshman season in 2007-08. Despite his low scoring total, Fraase was able to find the open points and Karl Olson, Jr., Bismarck, N.D. C

COBBER NOTES
Concordia is struggling to hang on for their playoff life as they enter the second half of MIAC play tonight. What was once a promising season has turned into a grind to find consistent shooting from the outside. The Cobbers have lost three straight and four out of their last five. That funk has dropped CC to seventh place in the MIAC standings. The good news for Concordia is that they get to play four of the top five teams in the league at home in the second half of the year. The Cobbers are only one break away from being able to go on a five or six-game run. Maybe a buzzer-beater in tonight’s game would be just what the Doctor ordered!...during the last three games the Cobbers’ opponents have hit on a crisp 48.1% (26-for-54) of their shots from behind the arc...CC junior Darrin Olmscheid has been on a scoring tear as of late. He has scored in double figures in seven of the last eight games and currently leads Concordia in scoring with a 14.1 ppg average. He is in the top 12 in the MIAC in scoring (14.1 ppg), field goal percentage (53.1) and offensive rebounds (2.27).

TOMMIE NOTES
St. Thomas enters tonight’s game 9-1 in league play and tied for the conference lead with Gustavus. The Tommies lost to the Gusties last Wednesday but have since rebounded to beat St. John’s in OT on Saturday and then Hamline on Monday. UST is currently ranked ninth in the latest D3hoops.com national poll. St. Thomas has been ranked in the top 10 nationally for 22 consecutive polls and has D-III’s best record over the last two seasons at 43-3...the Tommies have three players averaging over 10 points per game this year and are led by junior Tyler Nicolai who is averaging 16.3 ppg. He has led the team in scoring in all but two games this year. UST is 51-3 in his career when he scores seven or more points...Nicola and backcourt mate Joe Scott are making their 75th consecutive start tonight. UST is 66-8 in that span.

Head Coach: Steve Fritz (30th Season)
Assistant Coach: Jon Hughes, Johnny Tauer, Tommy Fritz, Don Johnson

2009-10 St. Thomas Season Preview (Courtesy of the St. Thomas SID)

St. Thomas is ranked fourth in the 2009-2010 preseason men’s basketball poll by D3Hoops.com. Coach Steve Fritz graduated three starters from last winter’s 30-1 team that reached the national quarterfinals in Division III and was ranked first nationally for five weeks.

Fritz starts his 30th season with a 541-239 (.694) record (427-147, .744 in MIAC regular-season play). He returns nine of the top 14 players from 2008-09. Several promising freshmen -- including two who are transfers -- are expected to push for playing time. The Toms take a 23-game conference win streak into this winter.

For the first time in 95 seasons, St. Thomas will play its home games off campus. The Tommies will play their home games two miles away at Concordia University. They also play three conference home games one mile away at Macalester – Dec. 5 against St. Olaf; Jan. 18 vs. Hamline; and Jan. 30 vs. Macalester.

UST graduated four important players in three-year starter Lonnie Robinson along with B.J. Viau, Al McCoy and Brett Tuma. Over the last four seasons, that quartet helped St. Thomas post the top winning percentage out of 400-plus Division III men’s basketball teams with a 100-16 record and .8620 win%. They also became the first group in MIAC history in a four-year span to win the regular-season and playoff championships.

Robinson, a defensive stopper, was a key part of Tommie basketball and baseball teams that won 15 of a possible 16 MIAC team championships in the regular season and playoffs.

Senior All-American shooting guard Joe Scott and junior point guard Tyler Nicolai lead the returners. Scott (204 career treys) and Nicolai (110 treys in 59 games) have started every game the last two seasons and have helped UST compile a 53-6 record in their era, including a 41-3 conference record. Scott has scored more than 1,100 career points, including his freshman year as a starter at Division II Colorado-Colorado Springs.

The 2008-09 conference Player of the Year, Scott made third-team All-American by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). He was named to the Preseason All-America team by The Sporting News Basketball Magazine and D3Hoops.com. Scott led UST in scoring at 13.4 points a game while playing less than 28 minutes. He made 71 treys at a 41% clip in 31 games. He shot 70% from the foul line, and in MIAC play shot 52% from the field and 44% from 3-point range, while leading the conference with 1.75 steals a game. When Scott has scored 17 or more points on his career, the Tommies are 24-1.

Center David Baker (69 games, 225 points, 120 rebounds) is passing up his senior season. The Tommies’ inside game will be led by 6-8 junior Anders Halvorsen (313 points in 59 games) and two seniors, 6-4 Josh Peltier and 6-6 Sam Eicher. Three freshmen front-liners on the varsity are 6-6 Josh Pedretti of Maple Grove, 6-5 Garrett Maloney of Milwaukee Marquette High, and 6-5 Jake Lippert of Farmington. Pedretti was a two-time All-conference player and made the 40-man roster for last April’s Minnesota Coaches’ All-Star Series. Maloney was Wisconsin honorable mention all-state, conference Player of the Year and a 15 ppg scorer as a senior.

Other experienced players in the guard/small forward role are juniors Alex Healy (53 games, 218 points) and Brady Ervin; senior Teddy Archer; and sophomore Peter Leslie. Junior point guard Chandler Sentell is up from the Tommies’ junior varsity.

Two transfers who add to the depth have four years of eligibility left. Noah Kaiser, who was injured last season at St. John’s, was Leslie’s high school teammate on a 2008 state tournament qualifier at Henry Sibley. John Nance, a Cretin-Derham Hall graduate, was a scholarship football player at QN for the Minnesota Gophers.
