CONCORDIA UPDATE
Concordia enters this weekend’s series with St. Ben’s needing two wins to mathematically sew up an MIAC playoff spot. Realistically, the Cobbers will probably only need one more win in their final four games to secure their first postseason berth since the 2002-03 season. CC is coming off a weekend sweep at Augsburg. Like most of the season, the Cobber defense led the way. The Cobbers shut out the Auggies on Friday and then limited Augsburg to only two goals on Saturday to pick up the two wins. CC is now 8-4-2 in the MIAC and is within one game of reaching the .500 mark in their overall record for the first time this season.

THE DAHL-LAMA
Cobber junior Alyssa Dahl has been the offensive spiritual leader for CC as of late. Last weekend she scored three goals on Friday night - including two goals in five seconds. That is believed to be an MIAC record and one of the fastest back-to-back goals by a single player in Division III history. Dahl finished with five points on the weekend and was named the MIAC Co-Player of the Week. She currently leads the team in scoring with six goals and 10 assists for 16 points. Dahl has been on the road for the first round. If the Cobbers win their first two games they will advance to the semifinal game on Saturday, Mar. 1.

SECOND PERIOD NOTHINGNESS
Concordia leads the MIAC in fewest goals allowed in the second period of conference games. The Cobbers have given up just five goals in the middle period in their 14 league games. They have allowed 10 in the first period and 10 in the third period.

PENALTY KILL PRINCESS
The Cobbers are second in the MIAC in penalty kills this season. CC has successfully killed off 95.3% of the power plays they have faced in the MIAC.

UP NEXT
Concordia will finish off the regular season when they host nationally-ranked, and league-leading, Gustavus next weekend. If the Cobbers finish fourth in the MIAC, they will host a first-round playoff game on Thursday, Feb. 28. If CC finishes third, they will go on the road to the No.2 seed for a semifinal game on Saturday, Mar. 1. If Concordia finishes fifth, they will be on the road for the first round.

ST. BEN’S UPDATE
St. Ben’s has won once in their past 14 games. However, in the past six games they have posted a win and two ties. The Blazers are coming off a pair of losses to league-leading Gustavus. CSB lost 3-0 at home on Friday and then 6-0 in St. Peter on Saturday. Before that series, they tied and lost against St. Kate’s. The Blazers started the season on the opposite side of the spectrum. They won three of their first four league games of the season. St. Ben’s has played better on the road in the MIAC this season than they have at home. CSB is 2-3-1 on the road and only 2-5-1 at home.

OFFENSIVE OUTAGE
One of the reasons St. Ben’s has stumbled as of late in conference play is due to their lack of offense. The Blazers were shut out in both games last weekend and are currently last in the MIAC in goals scored. CSB has notched only 27 goals in their 14 league games this year. They have scored more than two goals in only five game in the MIAC and have been held to one or none goals on seven occasions.

A PLUMM OF A GOALIE
One of the keys for St. Ben’s this season has been the play of freshman goalie Amanda Plum. Plum has been in net in all 15 games this year and is fifth in the conference in goals against average and save percentage. Plum has 2.62 GAA in her six league games and has a .921 save percentage.

OVERTIME QUEENS
Prior to their two games against Gustavus last weekend, St. Ben’s had recorded four straight overtime games. During that stretch, the Blazers were 1-1-2.

Meet the Head Coach – Ace Gregg

Ace Gregg is in his second year as the head coach for the Concordia women’s hockey team. Before that time he was the assistant coach for the Cobbers for the past two seasons.

Coach Gregg holds a degree in Health and Physical Education from North Dakota State University. While at NDSU, he played both football and hockey. He later coached the NDSU men's club team before moving on to coach the very successful Fargo South Girl's Varsity team as well as the North Dakota Select Team.

Gregg was named ND “Coach of the Year” both years he coached the Fargo South team.

The Blazer will be seeking improvement as they look ahead and prepare to take the ice for their 2007-2008 campaign. In order for this improvement to occur, the team has planned to play hockey with an attitude of "No Holding Back", which they feel will launch them forward into a great season.

This year, there is much excitement and new attitudes around the team. The Blazers will be welcoming another talented group of first-year players that they hope will add depth to the team and show a strong work ethic on the ice.

Saint Benedict’s sophomores all are coming off their outstanding first years where they all learned what it takes to play in the heavily competitive collegiate ranks.

Juniors Stephanie Kendrick, Patty King, Andrea Selby, Abby Milton, and Sarah Zweber are ready to make the transition from outstanding sophomores to astounding juniors.

The senior class is full of experienced, talented players who are prepared to propel CSB to the top. They are coming off impressive years in which they gained new skills and improved their offensive output.

For Saint Benedict, the objective is simple: "No Holding Back", and through that philosophy, success, improvement and determination will follow.

Michaud says, "The 2007-08 team brings a tremendous amount of excitement and enthusiasm! The returning players have brought a tremendous work ethic and commitment to improvement over the off-season while the first year additions have improved the team in the locker room, on the ice, and through their dedication and belief in our value system. Any team that takes us lightly will be making a mistake. The 2007-08 Blazers are primed to win.”
