GAME #12
University of Saint Thomas (6-5/5-3 MIAC) At Concordia College (7-4/5-3 MIAC)

January 13, 2007
Memorial Auditorium
Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 3 p.m.
SERIES: St. Thomas leads 30-29
SERIES STARTED: 1979
LAST SEASON: Last year the Cobbers swept St. Thomas for the third straight season. Concordia beat the Tommies 73-48 at home and then completed the season sweep by downing UST 70-55 in St. Paul. In the first game, CC led by six points at halftime and then went on a 20-5 run in the final eight minutes of the game romp to a 25-point victory. The 25-point margin of victory was the largest for the Cobbers over UST since the 1985-86 season. Four different players scored in double figures for Concordia.

Annie Keeley led all scorers in the game with 15 points. She was 2-of-4 from behind the arc and 6-of-15 from the floor overall. Tori Ehler and Melanie Hageman each had 13 points, while Jessica Heintz added 11. St. Thomas was led by Melissa Keiser who went 5-of-8 from the field and scored a team-high 14 points for the Tommies. In the second game, Concordia trailed 29-23 at the break, scored 47 points in the second half and cruised to a 15-point win. The guard tandem of Jenna Freudenberg and Annie Keeley secured the win for CC. Freudenberg scored a game-high 18 points and Keeley added 14. Freudenberg went 4-of-5 from the floor in the second half. UST had three players score in double digits. Dee Prioleau came off the bench to lead the team in scoring with 13 points.

GAMEDAY GAME NOTES

- Concordia heads into today’s game on a two-game conference winning streak after having dropped two straight league games. The Cobbers are 5-3 in the MIAC and deadlocked in a four-way tie for fourth place in the conference standings. One of the teams that Concordia is tied with happens to be today’s opponent, St. Thomas. The other two are Hamline and St. Kate’s. St. Ben’s leads the MIAC with a perfect 8-0 record while Gustavus and Carleton are tied for second at 6-2.
- The Cobbers beat Bethel 87-77 on Wednesday in Arden Hills, Minn. and in the process set a new school record for highest free throw percentage by a team in a single game. Concordia went 24-of-25 from the line against the Royals and finished with a record-setting 96.2% free throw percentage. That broke the old mark of 95.4% (21-of-22) set on Dec. 20, 1980 against NDSU.
- The 87 points scored against the Royals on Wednesday tie the mark for most points scored in a single game for CC this season. The Cobbers have now posted consecutive games where they have scored more than 70 points for only the second time this season (the first came in the opening two games of the year).
- The Cobbers are currently third in the conference in points per game. Concordia is averaging 67.5 points per game in their first 11 games of the year. However, they are eighth in the league in opponent’s scoring average (64.1 ppg).
- Cobber stat to keep remembering – field goal percentage! The "Mendoza" line for CC this year has been 35.0% from the field. When the Cobbers have shot under 35.0%, they are 0-4, when they have shot better than 35.0% they are 7-0. That stat held true in both games last week as CC shot 40.7% against Gustavus and 43.9% vs. the Royals and won both games!
- In the game against Bethel, Melanie Hageman went 12-of-13 from the foul line and finished with a season-high 30 points. She was one point shy of tying her career-high of 31 points which she set last year vs. Bethel. Hageman’s 30 points on Wednesday is the highest single-game point total by any player in the MIAC this season. Her 12 free throws made are also the most made by a single conference player this season.
- Senior guard Annie Keeley broke out of her recent shooting slump by going 3-of-5 from 3-point range, 6-of-6 from the free throw line and finishing with 23 points. It was the first time in seven games that she scored more than 18 points in a game after starting the season by posting 20-plus scoring games in two of the first three games.
- St. Thomas enters today’s game on the heels of a 67-53 loss at home against Gustavus. The defeat ended a two-game winning streak for the Tommies – the only time all season UST has won back-to-back games.
- UST is 2-4 in road games this season. They have had most of their success at home where they have posted a 4-1 mark. Their loss on Wednesday against Gustavus was their first home defeat of the year. However, they are eighth in the league in opponent’s scoring average (64.1 ppg).

Clobber Last Game Recap

ARDEN HILLS, Minn. (1/10/07)-- Melanie Hageman scored a season-high 30 points and Annie Keeley broke out of her shooting slump to score 23 points and help Concordia pull away from Bethel in the final minutes of the second half to post an 87-77 victory in Arden Hills on Wednesday. The biggest advantage for Concordia in the game came at the free throw line where the Cobbers went 25-of-26 and finished by shooting 96.2%. That mark breaks the school record for highest free throw percentage in a single game. The past record was 21-of-22 (95.4%) set on Dec. 20, 1980 against NDSU.

The win is the second straight for the Cobbers who snapped a two-game conference losing streak on Monday. Concordia moves to 5-3 in the conference and is now in a four-way tie for fourth place in the MIAC. CC ups its overall mark to 7-4 on the season. Bethel drops to 2-7 in league play and 3-8 overall. Concordia jumped to a 45-40 lead at the break and then umped the margin to 13 points at 61-48 with 13:13 left to play. Bethel then went on a 17-7 run over the next 6:33 to cut the lead down to three. The Royals then came all the way back to tie the game on their very next possession when Shari Laugen hit a 3-point basket with 6:20 remaining. After Clobber head coach Jessica Rahaman called a timeout, CC connected on the next two baskets to take a four-point lead. Bethel would get as close as one point at 74-73 with 3:19 left to play before the Cobbers closed out the game on a 13-4 run by making 11 straight free throw attempts.

As a team, Concordia shot 43.9% (29-of-66) from the field and kept their perfect record intact when shooting above 35.0% from the field in the game. CC is 7-0 this season when they shoot better than 35.0% from the floor and 0-4 when they fail to reach that mark. The Cobbers also shot 28.6% (4-of-14) from 3-point range and have not shot better than 29.0% from behind the arc for the past five games.

Tommies Last Game Recap

Senior center Bri Monahan scored 14 of her game-high 20 points in the second half, including 10 during a 23-2 run, as the visiting Gusties rallied past St. Thomas 67-53 in MIAC women's basketball Wednesday at UST's Schoenecker Arena.

The Tommies (6-5 overall, 5-3 MIAC) lost their first home game in five outings as they watched an 11-point second-half lead evaporate.

The Toms led 28-26 at halftime, and later used an 8-0 run to take a 41-30 lead with 12:22 to go, capped by Anna Swanson's 3-point basket.

But the Gusties (9-2, 6-2) answered with a 14-0 run for a 44-41 lead. They never looked back as they won their sixth in a row on the Tommies' floor dating back to 2001-2002.

Gustavus made five treys in their second-half comeback and outsored UST 24-3 from 3-point range on the contest. The Gusties shot only 37% on the game but had a 40-34 rebounding advantage.

Freshman guard Brianna Radtke had 12 of her 18 points in the second half and added six rebounds and six assists. Junior guard Jess Vadnais scored 12 points. Monahan had eight of her nine rebounds in the second half, and Kenzie Consoer had four second-half assists.

UST sophomore center DeJurnett Prieleau had a career-high 17 points and added nine rebounds, and senior forward Melissa Gotchnik had 11 points and 11 rebounds. Soph forward Jessica Katch had seven rebounds, six assist and four steals.
