GAME #14
Saint Mary’s University (4-9/2-8 MIAC) At Concordia College (9-4/7-3 MIAC)

January 17, 2007
Memorial Auditorium
Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 7:45 p.m.
SERIES: Cobbers lead 43-9
SERIES STARTED: 1981

LAST SEASON: Last year the Cobbers swept the Cardinals, winning 53-47 at home and then claiming the sweep with a 60-41 victory in Winona. The first game was a tale of good news, bad news for CC.
The good news for the Cobbers was that the defense limited St. Mary’s to only 47 points, including an 18-point first half. The bad news was that the Cobber offense was just as cold from the floor as the Cardinals, struggling to score 53 points and shooting just 37.8% (17-for-43) from the floor in the game.

Melanie Hageman had a game-high 14 points for Concordia. She was one of only three players in the entire game to finish in double figures in points scored. In the return game at St. Mary’s, the Cobbers led wire-to-wire and came away with the 19-point victory. The 41 points allowed by the Cobbers was a season low and was the lowest point total given up by Concordia since Feb. 2, 2000, when the Cobbers beat Macalester 74-35. Hageman once again proved too much to handle as she poured in a season-high 28 points. She only missed one shot during the entire game. She was a perfect 9-of-9 from the floor and 10-of-11 from the free throw line.

basketball team and coaches."

What do you like best about Concordia? "The friendships with teammates and I also think it is great how helpful professors are outside the classroom."

GAMEDAY GAME NOTES

- Concordia enters tonight’s game on the heels of their most convincing league win of the season as they cruised past Augsburg 79-56. The Cobbers have now won four straight games for the first time this season. CC’s previous longest win streak was three games at the start of December.
- Cobber senior guard Annie Keeley (Grafton, N.D.) needs only 17 more points to become the 21st player in the history of the program to reach the 1,000-point mark for her career. She will become the second player this season to surpass the scoring milestone. Keeley accomplished the feat on Dec. 9 against St. Kate’s.
- Hageman is averaging 18.2 points per game this season and is leading the conference in points per game in overall games.
- Concordia is currently second in the MIAC in scoring average (69.0 ppg) in league games. What makes that stat more intriguing is the fact that CC is ranked 11th in the MIAC in 3-point field goal percentage.
- After tonight’s game, CC will enter their most-telling two-game stretch of the season. On Saturday, they host league-leading St. Ben’s and then turn around and play at second-place Carleton on Monday. Those two games will be a huge factor in whether or not Concordia will be contending for the league title. The Cobbers have now won four straight games for the first time this season to surpass the scoring milestone. Keeley accomplished the feat on Dec. 9 against St. Kate’s.
- Following the road game at Carleton, Concordia will have three consecutive home games. They will host St. Olaf on Jan. 24, then St. Kate’s on Jan. 27 and finally Macalester on Jan. 31. The Gameday staff predicts the Cobbers won’t have a hard time getting ready for their game against the Scots on the last day of January!
- St. Mary’s enters tonight’s game with a 2-8 record in league play and a 4-9 overall mark. They beat Augsburg on Saturday but then lost at home against Bethel 53-42. In the game against the Auggies, the Cardinals snapped their season-high five-game losing streak with the 73-59 victory.
- The Cobbers have now won four straight games for the first time this season to surpass the scoring milestone. Keeley accomplished the feat on Dec. 9 against St. Kate’s.
- SMU’s 42 points vs. the Royals were the third-lowest offensive output, while the Cardinals’ 14 first-half points were one shy of the season-low 13 scored in the second half vs. St. Thomas.
- SMU is still in search of its first road win since opening the season with a 2-8 record in league play and a 4-9 overall mark. They beat Augsburg on Saturday but then lost at home against Bethel 53-42. In the game against the Auggies, the Cardinals snapped their season-high five-game losing streak with the 73-59 victory.
- The Cardinals, who scored a season-high 73 points in their win vs. Augsburg last Saturday, turned around and posted one of their poorest offensive performances of the season vs. Bethel. SMU’s 42 points vs. the Royals were the third-lowest offensive output, while the Cardinals’ 14 first-half points were one shy of the season-low 13 scored in the second half vs. St. Thomas.
- Jessica Weisbrod’s (Rollingstone, Minn.) bid for a third straight double-double, and the fifth of her career, came up one point short vs. Bethel, as the SMU junior scored nine points and pulled down 10 rebounds. It was also the first time in the last four games that Weisbrod failed to score at least 10 points. Weisbrod leads the team in both scoring average (11.1 ppg) and rebounding (7.3 rpg).
- Kelly Tanke (La Crosse, Wis.) has been SMU’s long-range bomber this year, netting 22 of the team’s 38 3-pointers.

Cobber Last Game Recap

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (1/15/07)-- Melanie Hageman (Jr., Fargo, N.D./Fargo South HS) had a double-double with 20 points and 10 assists, one of 10 Concordia players to score in a 79-56 victory over host Augsburg College in a Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference women's basketball game Monday night at Augsburg's Si Melby Hall. The Cobbers (9-4 overall, 7-3 MIAC) scored the first 10 points of the game and jumped out to a 20-1 lead in the first 4:45 of play, eventually leading 40-24 at halftime. The Auggies cut the lead to 14 points early in the second half, but Concordia used a 15-4 run to take a 25-point lead, 57-32 with 13:27 left, and eventually extended the lead to as many as 31 points down the stretch.

Michelle Richter (So., Chaska, Minn.) led Augsburg (1-12 overall, 1-9 MIAC) with 14 points and five rebounds, while Kristina Lukren (Jr., Kenyon, Minn./Kenyon-Wanamingo HS) had 12 points, eight rebounds and four assists. Concordia connected on 46.8 percent (29-of-62) from the field, while Augsburg was held to just 31.7 percent (19-of-60) shooting from the field. Concordia outrebounded Augsburg by a 44-39 margin and converted 28 points off of 16 Augsburg turnovers. Augsburg claimed 13 points on 15 Concordia turnovers. Concordia had 34 points in the paint, compared to 24 for Augsburg.

Annie Keeley (Sr., Grafton, N.D.) scored 14 points with six rebounds, four assists and two steals for the Cobbers, and Sara Sorbo (Fr., Adams, N.D./Adams-Edmore HS) had 12 points, with three assists and two steals.

Jenna Freudenberg (So., Parkers Prairie, Minn.) scored nine points with three assists. For Augsburg, Taylor Ray (So., Two Harbors, Minn.) scored nine points with four rebounds, while Jacci Mattern (So., Lakeville, Minn.) had seven points and four rebounds, and Marissa Lindback (Sr., Minneapols, Minn./South HS) had six points.

Cardinals Last Game Recap

WINONA, Minn. (1/15/07)-- The Saint Mary's University women's basketball team put together its most impressive offense performance of the season Saturday, erupting for 73 points in a 73-59 win over Augsburg.

Two days later, SMU's offense went from best to worst, managing just 14 first-half points and 42 points for the game, as Bethel took advantage of SMU score seven of the first 10 points of the second half to take a 21-9 advantage into the locker room at the half.

The Cardinals, who snapped their season-high five-game losing streak last game, are looking for their first two-game winning streak of the season — and were looking for their first two-game winning streak of the season — could not get anything to fall in the first half, making just 6 of 33 field goal attempts (18 percent). That was the bad news.

The good news was, Bethel wasn't a whole lot better in the game's second half, but Concordia used a 15-4 run to take a 25-point lead, 57-32 with 13:27 left, and eventually extended the lead to as many as 31 points down the stretch.

SMU scored seven of the first 10 points of the second half to take a 21-20 advantage, and the two teams took turns holding a one-point lead before the Royals went on a 20-6 run to take a 44-31 lead with 5:38 remaining. The Cardinals got back to within nine on a three-pointer by Kelly Tanke (La Crosse, Wis.), but that was as close as they would get in falling to 2-8 in the MIAC and 4-9 overall.

Jessica Weisbrod (Rollingstone, Minn.) had her bid for a third straight double-double fall one point short as the junior finished with nine points and 10 rebounds. Tanke also netted nine points for SMU, while Annegret Nautsch netted a game-high 14 points and added 11 rebounds and seven blocks for the Royals.
