Game #16
Bethel University (6-8-2/5-4-2 MIAC) at Concordia College (4-9-2/3-7-1 MIAC) February 3, 2007

Moorhead Sports Center Moorhead, MN

GAME TIME: 2 p.m.
SERIES: Concordia leads 8-6-1
SERIES STARTED: 2000

Last Season: Last year Bethel swept the Cobbers in St. Paul and did not allow a goal in the process. The Royals won the first game 3-0 as they broke the game open with a pair of goals 29 seconds apart in the third period. It was a 1-0 game midway through the final period until Lisa Kinney scored at 10:22 and the teammate Bethany Murphy added the final insurance goal at 10:51. The Royals outshot the Cobbers 28-22 for the game. Neither team scored on the power play. CC went 0-1 for the game while the Royals were held scoreless in their five attempts.

The Cobber's biggest influence on their hockey career was Wayne Gretzky, "I started playing because of him."

Last Night’s Game Recap
There are many great mysteries in life. Which came first, the chicken or the egg? Who built Stonehenge? If a tree falls in a forest and no one is around to hear it, does it really make a sound? The Cobber women's hockey team has added another mystery to that list. How does one get a puck past Bethel goalie Beth Spurrier?

Concordia recorded 24 shots on goals against the Royal goalie, but none found the back of the net and the Cobbers wound up losing at home to Bethel 1-0 on Friday.

The shutout victory marks the third straight blanking of Concordia by Spurrier in a streak that stretches back to the two games in the 2005-06 season. CC has now gone 180 straight minutes without getting a puck by the sophomore netminder.

The loss delivers a sevener blow for Concordia's playoff hopes. They entered the game 3-6-1 in the MIAC and only three points back of Bethel for the fifth, and final, spot in the conference playoffs. Now, CC is 3-7-1 in league play and a full five games adrift of the Royals. Concordia is now 4-9-2 overall.

With the win, Bethel climbs above the .500 mark in conference play. The Royals are now 5-4-2 in the MIAC and make a jump into fourth place in the league standings. Overall, they are now 6-8-2 on the year. The victory also snaps a seven-game winless skid for BU.

The lone goal of the game came towards the end of the first period. Bethel sophomore Bethany Murphy finished off a pass from Amy Beitzel to give the Royals the only goal they would need in the game at the 16:39 mark of the opening frame.

From then on, Spurrier did the work. She stopped everything the Cobbers could throw on net and did not allow any quality second chances.

Cobber goalie Amber Malcolm matched Spurrier save for save but unfortunately conceded the only goal of the night. In the end, she turned aside 16 shots.

Neither team could score on the power play. Concordia went 0-for-6 while the Royals were held scoreless in their five attempts.

The biggest chance for the Cobbers came midway though the second period when CC had a 5-on-3 advantage for over a full two minutes. They were unable to find a way past Spurrier and the Bethel goalie only got stronger from that point forward.

For the game, Concordia outshot Bethel 24-17. The Cobbers were whistled for five penalties for 10 penalty minutes and the Royals recorded eight penalties for 16 minutes.

Cobber Last Game Recap

St. Mary’s 4 at Concordia 0 – Saturday, Jan. 20

On Friday, Concordia used their familiarity with the Moorhead Sports Center sight lines to net six goals on their way to the largest offensive output of the season. Saturday afternoon was a completely different story as the Cobbers struggled to find quality chances and was shutout for the third time this season in a 4-0 loss to St. Mary’s.

One of the keys in the game came from power play chances. Concordia spent much of the game killing off penalties and were never able to get into a sustained flow in the game. The Cobbers were whistled for a season-high nine penalties and had to kill 10 different Cardinal power play attempts. CC’s overworked penalty kill team was the only success story for the Cobbers. Concordia successfully killed off 9 of the 10 man-advantage situations in the game.

On the other side, St. Mary’s was only whistled for four penalties and had to kill off only two power play attempts. Despite only having two power play chances, CC was only outshot 24-23 in the game.

SMU got on the board in the first period when Melissa Mondo netted her 10th goal of the season at 11:09. The goal would turn out to be the game-winner as St. Mary’s goalie Nikki Jung stopped all 23 Cobber shots in the game.

Jung did the majority of the work in the third period when CC outshot SMU 12-6. The Cobbers could never get the all-important first goal and were always battling a two-goal deficit.

The Cardinals added two goals in the middle period and then finished off the scoring with a goal with less than two minutes to play in the game.

Concordia goalie Amber Malcolm made 20 saves for the game.

Royal Last Game Recap

Gustavus 8 at Bethel 0 – Saturday, Jan. 27

(Journal of Gustavus SID)

Jenny Pusch netted four goals, including three on the power play, as the Gustavus Adolphus women's hockey team completed a weekend sweep of Bethel University 8-0 Saturday afternoon at Schwan Super Rink in Blaine. Molly Doyle scored a pair of goals for the second night in a row for the Gusties.

The Gusties scored four times in the final 6:05 of the first period behind two goals by Doyle and one each by Pusch and Andrea Peterson. Pusch got Gustavus on the board with a power-play goal at the 13:55 mark of the first period on an assist from Kelly Crandall. Crandall assisted on the next Gustie goal as well, as Doyle extended the Gustavus lead to 2-0 just 39 seconds later. Liz Haakenson was also credited with an assist on the play. Doyle notched her second goal of the period at the 16:18 mark when she scored off an assist from Stefanie Ubl. Peterson made the score 4-0 with a short-handed goal 47 seconds later. Pusch made the lead 5-0 with a goal at the 3:22 mark of the second period and Margaret Dorer pushed the lead to six with a goal at the 17:46 mark. Mari Gunderson and Jessie Doig were credited with assists on Pusch's goal, while Crandall and Doyle notched helpers on Dorer’s goal. Pusch completed the hat trick with a power-play goal at the 9:30 mark of the third period off assists from Melissa Mackley and Dorer, and then notched her fourth of the game at the 13:54 mark off an assist from Alyssa Saunders to complete the scoring.

Breanna Scavo made four saves over the first two periods to get her second career win in net for Gustavus. Sarah Windhorst and Amanda Rosequist each played ten minutes in the third period, making one and two saves, respectively. Beth Spurrier faced a barrage of shots for the second night in a row, making 46 saves on Saturday to go with 54 on Friday night. Gustavus outshot Bethel 54-7 and finished 4-of-8 in power-play opportunities. The Royals were 0-for-5 with one shot on goal in their opportunities with the extra skater.
