GAME #8
HAMLIN UNIVERSITY (5-3-0/0-2-0 MIAC) at
CONCORDIA COLLEGE (2-5-0/2-0-0 MIAC)
November 30, 2007
Moorhead Sports Center
Moorhead, Minn.
GAME TIME: 7 p.m.
SERIES: Concordia leads 12-2-2
SERIES STARTED: 1999-00
LAST YEAR: Last year the two teams split the two-game series in St. Paul. Concordia skated to a 3-2 victory in the first game and then Hamline used an air-tight defense to post a 1-0 win in the series finale. In the opener, the Cobbers scored a pair of special team’s goals and rallied to beat the Pipers by one goal. Alyssa Dahl scored a power play goal in the first period and a short-handed goal in the second to help CC to the victory. Paige Stone netted the game-winner at 4:17 of the third period. Hamline broke out to leads of 1-0 and 2-1 in the first period before CC scored two unanswered goals to claim the victory. HU outshot Concordia 23-22 and Cobber goalie Amber Malcolm made 21 saves to earn the win. In the second game, Hamline netminder Andrea Pinkerton turned aside all 19 shots she faced to record the first shutout in Piper women’s hockey history. Hamline scored the game-winning goal at the 14:54 mark of the final period. CC goalie Maddie Haroldson nearly matched Pinkerton save for save. Haroldson stopped 27 of the 28 shots she faced in the game as HU outshot CC 28-19.

SERIES SYNOPSIS: The teams have been “even steen” in the past six games in the series. Each team has won two games and lost two games with two contests ending in overtime ties. Before that 2-2-2 stretch Concordia owned Hamline by winning the first 10 games in the series. The first win for the Pipers against the Cobbers came in the 2004-05 season when HU won 3-2 in Moorhead...Concordia has a 5-1-1 record at home against Hamline...the teams played three times during the 2005-06 campaign. CC hosted the Pipers in a non-conference game during its Thanksgiving holiday tournament and then played the regular season series in St. Paul.

MIAC COACHES’ PRESEASON POLL
Gustavus, ranked third nationally, was the top vote-getter in the Women’s Hockey Preseason Coaches’ Poll. The Gusties beat out 2006-07 playoff teams St. Thomas, St. Olaf, Hamline, and Saint Mary’s for first place.

CATCHING UP WITH CONCORDIA
Concordia returns to action after a two-week layoff for the Thanksgiving holiday. Before the break, the Cobbers opened the 2007-08 MIAC season by sweeping St. Kate’s 4-1 and 3-1. The two wins pushed CC into a tie for first place in the conference standings. They are one of three teams unbeaten at 2-0. Gustavus and St. Olaf have also taken off with the Cobbers to take the lead coming out of the starting blocks in the MIAC race. After this weekend, CC will have one more series before taking an extended break for the Christmas holiday. Concordia will play at St. Mary’s next Friday and Saturday and then have off until Jan. 4 when they will host Lindenwood (Canada) in an exhibition game at 7 p.m.

THE THORSON SCORING TOUCH
Cobber sophomore Kayla Thorson (Rugby, N.D./Minot HS) is currently tied for fifth in the MIAC in points this season. Thorson has one goal and five assists on the year. She is also tied for second in the conference in assists. Thorson had a goal and two assists in the two games against St. Kate’s. She has scored at least one point in four of the team’s six games this year and has a pair of two-point games. Last year Thorson was fifth on the team in scoring with seven goals and three assists for 10 points. She needs only four more points this year to equal that output.

PENALTY KILL PROWESS
Concordia killed off 16 of the 17 power play chances against St. Kate’s in their two-game series on Nov. 16 and 17. Despite the domination against the Wildcats, the Cobbers are eighth in the conference in penalty kill situations. CC has shut down 36 of the 44 (81.8%) power play attempts it has faced. On the other side of the specialty teams spectrum, Concordia is third in the MIAC in power play percentage. The Cobbers have scored on six of the 40 power play attempts. Overall, CC is currently tied for fourth in the MIAC in combined special teams this year.

PARTNERS IN CRIME
Concordia has a pair of top-flight goalies this season. Sophomore Maddie Haroldson and freshman Julie York have both excelled in the team’s first seven games of the year. York is fourth in the MIAC in goals against average and save percentage and Haroldson is sixth in save percentage and ninth in GAA.

HAMLINE UPDATE
It has been a tale of two schedules for the Pipers in 2007. Hamline is 5-1 in their non-conference games and 0-2 in their MIAC contests. Hamline is coming off of a two-game sweep over Chatham (Pa.). In the series played in St. Paul, HU beat the Cougars 10-2 and 5-1. Hamline also posted a sweep over Concordia (Wis.) in the opening series of the year. After the Concordia series, the Pipers split with Finlandia (Mich.). Hamline’s lone conference series was against perennial MIAC powerhouse Gustavus. The Gusties swept the Pipers 10-1 and 5-1.

HOORAY FOR HEATHER
Hamline freshman forward Heather Ahlers (Stillwater, Minn.) was named the MIAC Player of the Week on Monday. Last week, Ahlers tallied six points in helping the Pipers defeat visiting Chatham University 10-2 and 5-1 in a pair of games that bookended Thanksgiving. On Wednesday night, Ahlers scored a hat trick, adding an assist on a fourth goal. In Friday night’s victory, she scored a goal and an assist. Nationally, Ahlers is tied for ninth in NCAA Division III women’s hockey in scoring with five goals and four assists, averaging 1.12 points per game in eight games. She has scored two game-winning goals in Hamline’s five wins. Ahlers is one of four Pipers who lead the MIAC in scoring this season.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY
In an effort to offer fans a little trivial knowledge this year, the Gameday staff has decided to use the bottom of each program to let everyone know what happened in history on today’s date.

Meet The Head Coach – Ace Gregg

Ace Gregg is in his second year as the head coach for the Concordia women's hockey team. Before that time he was the assistant coach for the Cobbers for the past two seasons.

Coach Gregg holds a degree in Health and Physical Education from North Dakota State University. While at NDSU, he played both football and hockey. He later coached the NDSU men's club team before moving on to coach the very successful Fargo South Girl’s Varsity team as well as the North Dakota Select Team.

Gregg was named ND “Coach of the Year” both years he coached the Fargo South team.

Meet The Head Coach – Garnet Asmundson

Garnet Asmundson enters his fifth season at the helm of the Hamline University women’s hockey program. The Pipers have increased their conference point total in each of Asmundson's first four years. In 2006-07, the Pipers set the school record for wins in a season by going 15-9-3 and earning a berth in the MIAC Playoffs. Prior to coming to Hamline, Asmundson was head coach at Simley High School for five seasons from 1998-2003. During that span, he posted a record of 77-52-2. His teams advanced to the third round of the section 3A finals in three of his last four seasons.

With such firepower on Asmundson's offense, he is looking to strengthen his defense in 2007-08 to allow his forwards' goals the chance to hold up on the scoreboard. "We are aiming to strengthen our defense this season," said Asmundson. "We need to allow fewer shots and goals." Last season, Hamline gave up 82 goals in 172 shots. Helping to meet this objective will be incoming first-years Megan Olson and Jenny Novakovitch. Asmundson expects Olson to be in the top four defenders, and looks to see Novakovich make an impression on that side of the puck, although she may also get some time on the ice at the forward position. Asmundson will have strong leadership returning to his defense to guide the newcomers. Senior Marie Gross earned All-MIAC first team honors for the second time in her career following a season in which she produced two goals and nine assists as a defender. Sophomore defender Amanda Finstad received honorable mention recognition with two goals and 15 assists last year.

Two additional solid defenders return for the Pipers. Sophomore Mallory Steele is back following a solid first year performance that included appearances in 25 of the Pipers 27 games and three assists on the season. Senior Emily Toenes played in 24 games and tallied two assists. Asmundson expects both players to step up and continue to be important factors in supporting the defensive goals of the program this season. Junior goalie Crystal Testolin was the final team member to receive honorable mention all-conference status during the 2006-07 season, and went 12-6-2 with a 2.68 goals against average in the net for the Pipers. She also had two shut-outs during the season.
